

Chapter 228

It was just too overbearing!

Heartless!

Jason Smith's body was overflowing with power!

How could a guy, who had been a coward for the past three years, be so powerful!

Amanda Yang was so scared that she did not dare to breathe. Her head was spinning when she watched Jason confronting Juliette Yun,

Was Ja.. Jason actually this powerful?

Juliette was the woman who had hit her. How could Jason say such things to Juliette.

Jason told Juliette he would kill either her or Randy He.

It was so horrible!

Amanda trembled with fear. She never thought that she would see Jason behaving like this. It was so horrible!

She was dumb enough to have dared to humiliate and slap Jason in the past.

Amanda was shocked enough when she saw Jason use the dagger to stab through Randy's limbs.

She swore to herself that she would never be arrogant to Jason again. This guy was so terrifying.

He seemed to have totally become a different person.

Meanwhile, Juliette showed no emotion after hearing Jason's words.

How dare he threaten her?

"Jason, do you think I'm threatened by you? I'm Juliette from the Yun's. I'm Smith's madam, I'm your father's second wife. You are basically my son, so you have to obey the Smith's rules. I order you to kneel down now!"

Juliette said with warning. Her face showed how serious she was.

Jason frowned and stared at Juliette. His pupils contracted like an all-consuming bottomless abyss.

How dared Juliette talk about Smith's rules!

"Juliette, what right do you have to order me around in the name of the Smith's rules?"

Jason said in a cold voice.

Juliette did not say anything. She took out a letter from her pocket with "The Smith's" written on it. There was a golden island symbol engraved on the bottom left corner of it.

She said with a sneer, "Before I came here, I asked your father to issue a letter with all your uncles' signatures on it."

Her smile was cold and there was a look of pride on her face.

After all, he was still too young to challenge her.

"I'm half in charge of Smith's. How could you possibly frighten me?"

Jason was silent for a moment. He took the letter and frowned.

"To the Smith's son, Jason Smith. Now, as the Smith's second madam, I officially command you to release Randy!"

Juliette looked at Jason indifferently with a cold face. "Jason, don't forget that I'm your stepmother and you are my stepson. Before your mother passed away, she passed you to me as my legal son. Do you really want to kill me?"

"Shut up! You never get to mention her! You will never be my mother!"

Jason roared and his eyes were red. He crumpled the letter in his hand into a ball and he threw it hard on the ground.

The content of the letter was very simple. He had to obey whatever Juliette said.

This was the decision of the rulers of the family.

It was his father's idea too.

He was not allowed to disobey his father's decision!

Especially after seeing so many uncles had signed their names on it.

"Let him go."

Juliette did not want to be entangled with Jason anymore so she shouted this unwaveringly.

Jason's eyes were red. He looked at Randy who was sneering on the ground. Randy smiled ferociously, "Hahaha, Jason. What do you think? I told you, once a loser, forever a loser! Hahahaha! Look. I'm fine!"

Boom!

Jason kicked Randy's face and shouted angrily, "It's not your turn to speak!"

Juliette frowned but did not say anything. She called the maids to clean up the villa immediately.

Jason had no choice. It was stated in Smith's rules and his father's handwritten letter.

He could not punish Randy any further.

He had no choice but to let him go.

Juliette looked at Jason who was full of anger and said coldly, "You're still too young. I'm shocked because you have changed a lot over the past seven years. However, in my opinion, you aren't ready for the big time just yet."

In the end, Jason could only watch as Randy was taken away. The moment he got into the car, he gave Jason the middle finger. He spitted a sip of saliva with blood and cursed, "Useless trash!"

Jason turned around with a cold look in his eyes and said coldly, "Don't spare his life."

"Okay, young master!"

The lazy looking man, at this moment, suddenly became serious. He turned around and disappeared into the villa.

A few moments later, the black business car that Randy sitting on stopped at one of Shang Jiang City's crossroads, waiting for the light to turn green.

He felt severe pain all over his body. They had helped him stopped the bleeding and gave him first aid treatment.

"Haha, Jason, such a loser! You wanted to kill me? I'm still alive. You shall wait and see. When I recover, I'll take revenge on you again!"

Randy's eyes were filled with coldness and he was completely blinded by hatred.

The traffic light turned green.

The car started moving and drove through the crossroad.

However!

Suddenly!

A heavy truck sped at a high speed from the opposite direction. It was unstoppable!

Boom!

The black business car was rammed by the heavy truck and rolled over about ten times.

Boom! Boom!

The black business car fell heavily to the ground and rolled a few more times. It was completely wrecked!

However, the heavy truck did not slow down and rushed over again. It completely crushed the black business car under its human-tall wheels.

The whole thing was over in less than a few seconds!

Horrible!

There was blood and shredded flesh all over the road!

Soon, Juliette who was on her way back to Royal Villa received the news.

Suddenly, the atmosphere in the car became so solemn.

Juliette shouted coldly, "Jason! How dare you do this?! You disobeyed my orders! I will never forgive you!"

Jason held Cindy Jiang in his arms and looked coldly at Amanda who was lying on the ground, "Go to the hospital."

Amanda was as timid as a puppy now. She was trembling too much to stand up. The cold sweat on her body was dripping off her like a waterfall.

"Okay."

Amanda responded and hurriedly followed Jason out of the villa.

Amanda felt relieved when she saw that Jason did not say anything more. She breathed a sigh of relief but she was still trembling.

Amanda immediately tried to hail a taxi when they left the villa. However, Paul Reed drove a black Mercedes and came over. He opened the door and greeted respectfully, "Get in the car, Mr. Smith."

Jason did not refuse. It was urgent to go to the hospital. Cindy had fainted and he did not know what had happened to her.

Amanda was stunned. She was lost for words when she saw the well-built man, Paul had a Mercedes.

"Get in the car," Jason said coldly.

Amanda got into the car in a hurry. She was seriously injured as well but she still could endure the pain to get treatment at the hospital.

On the way to the hospital, Amanda wanted to ask something but she was too afraid. Her heart was really in a mess now.

Who on earth was Jason?

Who was he?

She just heard from Juliette that Jason was Juliette's son?

Oh god!

It must be so terrifying to have a cruel mother like Juliette.

Never in Amanda's wildest dreams did she think that Jason would be so powerful one day. She felt scared.

He had always been a loser. Who would have thought that he was so scary? Just Juliette's background was powerful enough.

If Juliette was Jason's stepmother, then what was his status?

This was the biggest question in Amanda's mind.

When they arrived at the hospital, Jason hurriedly took Cindy to the emergency room.

After the doctor had checked her, there was nothing serious with Cindy. The main problem was that she had been too frightened. Moreover, she had taken an expired aphrodisiac. Her body could not accept it, so it made her pass out.

Jason was relieved now. He accompanied Cindy in the ward and watched her sleeping soundly.

Amanda was in another ward.

When Cindy woke up, she saw Jason looking at her as soon as she opened her eyes. Her face was pale, she smiled, "Jason, I'm sorry."

Jason shook his head. He held Cindy's cold little hands, "It's okay, it's all right. It's not your fault."

A series of tears rolled down from the corner of Cindy's eyes. She was still scared.

If Jason had not come, she might have been defiled by that b*stard, Randy.

This was the fourth time. It had always been Jason who saved her at the critical moment.

Cindy suddenly felt very secure. It seemed that it was very safe being with Jason.

He was her safe haven.

Jason looked at Cindy and touched her forehead with fondness. He suddenly asked, "Cindy, why were you with Randy just now?"

Cindy sighed helplessly, "It was my mother who asked me to go home."

"Your mother?!"

All of a sudden, Jason's body burst out with anger.

D*mn Amanda, she lied to him just now. She told him that Randy suddenly broke in!

"Jason, don't blame my mother. I could see that my mother was also being threatened by Randy."

When Cindy saw the anger on Jason's face, she trembled all over. She quickly grabbed Jason's hand, "Forget it. My mother got beaten by Randy in order to save me."

Jason smiled faintly and chatted with Cindy for a while. When Cindy was napping, he left and went to Amanda's ward!

Amanda was lying on the bed. She was exaggerating the pain, while Charles was sitting next to her.

"Charles, Jason will come soon. You have to stop him. I'm afraid that he will kill me."

Amanda was very worried and panicked.

Charles shook his head helplessly, "What stupid thing have you done now? I don't want to talk with you since you lied to our daughter!"

"I can't do anything about it. Randy put a knife to my neck. What do you want me to do?"

Amanda was so angry because her husband did not understand her.

However, she felt regret.

And luckily, Jason appeared to save them.

Suddenly!

Bang!

The door of the ward was kicked open. Jason rushed in and roared, "Amanda!"

Chapter 229

Amanda Yang was terrified when she heard Jason Smith's voice. She was trembling all over and immediately pretended to be asleep with the quilt covering her body.

It was obvious that Amanda was very scared from the look of the shaking blanket!

"Amanda!"

Jason was furious. Amanda was really terrible. How could she have sacrificed her daughter like this?

Jason was outraged. This useless mother-in-law really made him feel ashamed!

When he rushed into the room, he saw Amanda curled up in the quilt, shaking.

"Wake up!"

Jason roared!

Charles Jiang who was beside Amanda pulled Jason and advised him, "Jason, calm down. Nothing really bad happened to them, right? Moreover, your mother-in-law was being threatened by Randy He too. You can't put all the blame on her."

Jason turned his head and glared at Charles. He said angrily, "Charles, stand aside!"

Charles was stunned by Jason's direct and angry tone. He stood aside with fear.

Amanda peeped through the blanket and sat up. She curled up in the corner, "Jason, please don't hit me. It's my fault. I was so wrong. Please don't hit me."

Amanda was extremely afraid now. She was genuinely worried that Jason would kill her!

His cruelty in the villa left an indelible impression on Amanda.

Jason glared at Amanda angrily, "Amanda! I warn you, if you dare to do anything harmful to Cindy in the future, I'm the first person who is going to come after! You should behave yourself!"

After that, Jason clenched his fist and left the ward.

He really wanted to teach Amanda a lesson but she had already been badly beaten. Moreover, she was Cindy's mother so he could not really do it.

He would give her another chance. If she still did not want to change her behavior, he did not mind making her regret it for the rest of her life.

After Jason left the ward, Amanda breathed a sigh of relief. She glared at Charles who was standing beside her and cried, "You are a loser! Didn't you see that Jason was going to beat me? Aren't you ashamed of yourself for just hiding there? I'm your wife!"

Charles looked unhappy. He stared at Amanda and scolded, "Not just Jason. I also wanted to hit you. You have done something so stupid, but you still think that you're right."

Amanda was shocked after suddenly facing Charles' reproach.

Charles had always listened to her because he was very afraid of her.

However, she did not expect that Charles would raise his tone towards her because of this.

Amanda suddenly felt wronged. She cried badly and kept slamming her fists, "You all like to bully me, don't you? Am I not a human anymore? Don't you think I didn't know that Cindy is my daughter? How can I become the master of the family if everyone bullies me? I don't want to live anymore."

Amanda was very angry and sad.

She could not accept the fact that Jason the loser had suddenly become so powerful.

She did not dare to ask anything about Jason's identity.

Did she have to lower her status in order to get along with him?

Moreover, Charles challenged her as well. Was she really so annoyed them?

Charles had been given enough headaches from dealing with Amanda's unreasonable behavior over the years. He turned and left the ward to visit Cindy.

As Jason was returning to Cindy, he saw a beautiful figure. It was Yusra Su.

Yusra and Cindy were chatting at the beside.

Yusra held a document and smiled, "Cindy, you have to read these documents when you are home. I hope you will consider the offers."

"Why are you here?" Jason frowned.

"Oh! You're here."

When Yusra saw Jason, she stood up immediately and blushed. She was pretending to be cool, "I came here to visit Cindy and Aunt Amanda."

Jason nodded. He glanced at the document in Cindy's hand, "Cindy, return the documents to her."

Yusra looked a little confused.

"Jason, don't be that way. You're still friends."

Cindy quickly eased up and talked when she noticed the awkward atmosphere.

She wanted to show her magnanimity and did not want Jason to yet again be in a dilemma.

"Cindy, don't get me wrong. I'm just Jason's friend."

Yusra looked at Cindy's generous expression and could not help feeling jealous. She even felt a sense of frustration. No wonder Jason had no interest in her.

Cindy was indeed a good actor!

Was this the reason why Jason had been deceived by her?

Yusra had to change her strategy now. If she could not deal with Jason harshly, she would be more gentle.

In fact, Yusra was as pretty as Cindy. However, she was just a few centimeters shorter. Cindy was 1.7 metres tall, which she really stood out among the girls.

Especially Cindy's long and fair legs which were well-proportioned. Everyone would fall head over heels for her legs.

"It's okay..."

Cindy wanted to say it was okay. However, Yusra was still Jason's ex-fiancée so Cindy felt a bit dissatisfied whenever Yusra's name was mentioned. Jason was her husband, so why should she have to tolerate her? Cindy's intonation changed, "Miss Su, I won't receive your documents. Besides that, please behave yourself in the future. Because Jason is my husband!"

"Miss Jiang, I just told you that Jason and I are just friends now. Why? Are you not confident with yourself?"

Yusra folded her arms and her face darkened. She glanced at Cindy coldly.

She had already been hostile to Cindy. When she noticed Cindy's tone was unfriendly, she did not want to be polite with her anymore.

Jason did not know what to do for a moment because he had never encountered such a situation. He only felt the jealousy between these two women. Were these two beautiful women jealous because of him?

"All right. All right. Stop arguing."

Jason was embarrassed. He did not know how to diffuse the situation.

He felt very guilty for Yusra.

"Fine, it's so crowded here. There's no room for me. I'll leave."

Yusra picked up her bag and turned to leave.

"Why don't you go after your ex-fiancée and coax her?"

Cindy glanced at Jason and she actually felt a little proud of herself. She could see that Jason still cared about her the most.

She was just playing petty games right now. She just wanted to see who Jason really loved.

"Cindy, please spare me. I really don't have anything to do with Yusra."

Jason felt so wronged. Cindy would be right to get angry with him if he had something to do with Yusra. However, there was really nothing going on.

It had been ages, Cindy could not keep mentioning his ex-fiancée.

"Hmmp!"

Cindy snorted coquettishly but could not hide the smug smile on her face.

A few days later, Cindy was discharged from the hospital. Jason booked a restaurant specially for Cindy and planned to invite her for a candlelight dinner.

At first, Cindy just wanted to have a meal at home.

She did not want to waste money but Jason convinced her.

In the end, Cindy dressed up and followed Jason out to dinner.

The restaurant was packed because it was the weekend.

This was the top restaurant in Shang Jiang City. It cost at least a thousand dollars for each person. The interior design was very elegant and the atmosphere was really quiet and nice. It attracted lots of young people to dine here.

"Sir, I'm sorry. That seat has already been booked. It was reserved by this man."

The waiter led Jason to their table and found that it had been occupied by another couple.

The seat was the best in this restaurant because it had a lake view. Jason purposely booked it. However, it was already occupied so he was very angry.

"Are you blind? Can't you see that we sat here first? Anyway, you can sit somewhere else. It doesn't make any difference. We booked seats as well, so why should we let them sit here?"

The man sat at the table was dressed in a plain white suit with black pants. He looked smart but had bad manners.

"I'm sorry sir. We did tell you your table number when you booked at our restaurant. Please sit according to your number." The waiter said politely.

"This is my table number! Get lost!"

The man in white suit said in a somewhat shameless and overbearing tone. When he booked the table, the nice seat had already been reserved. So, he had come early just to get the seat. He would not give it up easily.

"Then, would you please show us your booking information?"

"I didn't have it with me."

"Sir..."

"Are you f*cking done?"

The man in white suit said impatiently, "Call your manager over and ask him who I am! Believe it or not, I'll get you fired!"

He did not only say this to the waiter, but to Jason as well.

This was obviously a warning!

"Forget it, let's get another table."

Cindy pulled Jason away because she did not want to spoil her mood with such a trivial matter.

"I don't think so. This is the table we booked. It belongs to us. People will look down on us if we bow to them. If there were no rules, people would not behave well. I think we should show them how to obey the rules."

Jason did not agree. He raised his eyebrows and looked at the man in a white suit and said coldly.

"Oh my god! Who do you think you're scolding?"

The man in the white suit suddenly stood up and raised his hand to slap Jason in the face.

Jason grabbed his wrist and suddenly buckled it. He pressed the man's handsome face onto the table with a loud bang.

"Ouch! It hurts. F*cking let go of me!" The man in the white suit shouted in pain.

"I told you. This table is mine. Got it?" Jason said coldly.

"What's going on?"

Then a man in a black suit rushed over.

"Manager, this gentleman isn't sitting according to his table number. He's occupying someone else's seats." The waiter replied quickly.

"Young Master Hayden?!"

The manager's facial expression changed when he saw the man in the white suit. He rushed over and pushed Jason's hands. He said coldly, "What are you doing?"

He was a young master who came of the Bai's from the capital city, Hayden Bai.

"He took my seat." Jason frowned.

"I'm the manager. You just sit according to my instruction. Today, these seats are for Young Master Hayden. I can give you a twenty percent discount as compensation." The manager replied with an unfriendly tone.

"This is not right. I want to sit here!"

Jason's face darkened and he would not give in at all.

Nobody in the world would dare to take Jason's things!

"Really? Then please leave. Our restaurant doesn't want to serve you."

The restaurant manager had a cold expression as he made a gesture to send Jason out.

Chapter 230

After the restaurant manager finished speaking, he winked at the waiter next to him.

Soon, two bodyguards wearing suits came in with straight faces. They looked terrifying.

This type of high-class restaurant must have its own bodyguards in order to prevent people from causing trouble and affected the guests' dining experience.

After all, this was not a street vendor, but a high-end restaurant. The people who came here were all well-known people.

"Haha. Did you hear that dude? Get out of here right now! Take a look at yourself! How dare you show off here!"

At this moment, Young Master Bai had a sneer on his face. He was acting extremely arrogant and looked down at everyone.

For him, there was nothing that he could not get!

What a useless dude to snatch his seat from him!

He was a young master from the Bai's from the capital city. He had just obtained his membership for this place which cost him hundreds of thousands of dollars!

So the manager not dared to mistreat him.

The manager only respected people if they were rich!

"Change our seat? We booked the table! Besides, is your restaurant going to drive away your guests? Who gave you the right to do this?"

Jason said coldly. Deep down, he felt disgusted with the behavior of these types of people that always looked down on people.

After that, Jason took out his mobile phone and called Bruce Scott. "Skyway Restaurant. If I'm not mistaken, it is your territory right?"

Bruce was in a meeting with his brothers. When he received Jason's call, he replied respectfully, "Mr. Smith, yes, the boss is my friend. Is there some kind of trouble?"

"Tell the boss that I'm going to have dinner here tonight."

Jason said coldly and hung up the phone immediately. He did not want to do this, but he had no choice. Sometimes, he had to use some connections.

In less than five minutes, one of Bruce's followers personally brought over a card and handed it to Jason.

Jason handed the black gold card to the restaurant manager, "I have this card, am I not qualified to eat here?"

This was the restaurant's special limited black gold membership card. Everything would be free of charge if Jason used the card to pay for the meal.

The manager was shocked when he saw the card. He broke out in cold sweat.

This was his restaurant's black gold membership card.

His boss had informed him that anyone who held this was the boss' top VIP guest.

Not to mention that his boss's backer was the gangland emperor, Bruce Scott!

There were some guests who held this black gold membership card in the past. They were either politicians or famous people. The manager did not expect that such a normal-looking Jason could have his boss's VIP card.

If his boss knew that he offended his VIP guests, he would be in trouble and may even get fired. How could this plain-looking guy actually know the owner of this restaurant!

Moreover, the manager found out from the telephone conversation that Jason even knew Bruce!

The manager trembled with fear. He bowed down immediately, "Si..Sir, I'm so sorry that I didn't recognize you. Please forgive me. The seat is yours. Please have a seat!"

"What did you say?"

Ray Bai's facial expression changed when he heard what the manager said, "Did you forget that I just became a member of your restaurant?"

He did not understand the reason for the manager's change in attitude after Jason took out an old card.

"Young Master Bai, if you don't mind, I will change seats for you. If you don't want to change, then I'm sorry. Can you please leave and not disturb our VIP guests from enjoying their meal."

The manager's attitude changed and he talked coldly to the man in the white suit, "This man has our restaurant's black gold VIP membership card. Only our boss's special guests have access to it, which can't be bought with money."

What to do? Even the young master of the Bai's could not get involved in this Shang-Jiang-City matter because he was far from his territory.

This guy was the minder of the restaurant's distinguished guests, so he could not offend him.

When he finished, two suited bodyguards came up and looked tense.

Ray did not dare to attack, his face was red with his lips pressed.

A few days ago, he had been sent to Shang Jiang City to monitor his family's business report. In meantime, he had met a beautiful college girl.

He wanted to show off to the beauty on her birthday but he did not expect to meet Jason. Not only that he could not show off, but he also embarrassed himself.

He had a plan in order to touch the girl, then they would get a room.

All of his plans were gone, just like that. He could only swallow his anger.

"Let's go over there and take a seat!"

Ray called the girl he was with and walked away.

"Sir, I'm sorry that your meal has been delayed. It's all my fault."

The restaurant manager kept laughing. Actually, he was very scared.

Jason did not even look at him. He waved his hand and told him to go away.

After both of them took their seats, Cindy asked in puzzlement, "What card did you just get? Why did he treat you so politely?"

"This is the restaurant's black gold VIP membership card. Their boss asked someone to send it here."

Jason told the truth.

"Boss? Why would he give it to you?"

Cindy's face was full of doubt.

"Have you forgotten what my family does?"

Jason smiled and looked at Cindy.

Cindy suddenly realized that Jason's family owned a restaurant as well. Although he had run away from home, he must know a lot of people in the business.

She did not ask any more questions and just lowered her head to eat.

"It's my girlfriend's birthday today. I'm glad to meet you all here. As long as you say happy birthday to my girlfriend, I'll send a bottle of red wine to every table!"

Suddenly, Ray stood up and told this to everybody.

The crowd could not help but felt surprised. Even if they were rich people, they felt surprised at his generosity because the cheapest bottle of red wine here was several thousand dollars.

If he gave out more than a dozen bottles of red wine, it would cost in the tens of thousands.

Many people had not come here for dinner, but for drinking. The wine here was more mellow and have a longer aftertaste compared with the wine that was sold in other places.

Everyone was more than happy to hold a toast for her when they heard about the free wine. They raised their glasses to wish Ray's girlfriend Happy Birthday.

The college beauty had never seen such a romantic scene before. Her face blushed and she became intoxicated. She was instantly surrounded by positivity.

This was only the beginning. Ray immediately took out a jewelry box from his pocket and opened it slowly revealing a dazzling gemstone necklace. He pretended to be gentle, "Dear, happy birthday, I will always love you until the end of my days."

"Wow!"

The crowd could not help but felt happy for them. All of them applauded and cheered.

Tears welled up in the corners of the beauty's eyes. Ray and she had checked on this necklace together before. The market price was more than eighty thousand dollars.

She did not expect that Ray had secretly bought it for her.

At this moment, she actually had the impulse to marry him.

The crowd cheered for them and Ray kissed her. One of his hands involuntarily slipped down under her waist. She did not reject him. Ray felt happy and put another hand down.

Ray ordered the waiters to send each table a bottle of red wine that cost six thousand dollars. He sent the wine to every table, except Jason's.

He did not forget to look at Jason's table and saw that he did not even have wine. He snorted, "Poor ass!"

As soon as he finished talking, he saw the restaurant manager walking over to Jason's table and talked respectfully, "Mr. Smith, your wine is here. This is Romanee-Conti. Our restaurant's special gift to apologize for my earlier actions."

Everyone was a little surprised to hear this. Was it that easy for them to give Jason a Romanee-Conti?

Many of the people present were red wine fans so they knew that Romanee Conti was the best of red wine. Its value was immeasurable.

The restaurant actually gave Jason a bottle of wine for free. People could not help but guess who he really was.

Ray's eyes became red again. He gritted his teeth. He sent red wine to all the tables just now was to humiliate Jason. However, it looked like he was the one who made a fool of himself.

The bottle of red wine on Ray's table was worth more than ten thousand dollars. However, it was worth nothing compared to the bottle of the Romanee Conti.

Cindy was quite surprised too. She wanted to ask but decided not to.

"I hope that every day in the future, we will be by each other's side, no matter how poor or how rich we are."

Jason raised his glass and said to Cindy with a smile.

Cindy was a little taken back. She did not expect Jason to say such things. She nodded with satisfaction and clink her glass with Jason's.

"Ladies and gentlemen, there are two very important guests in our restaurant today!"

The restaurant manager suddenly ran to the open space in the center of the restaurant and shouted excitedly to everyone, "The boss just told me that all the food and wine are free for everyone who is present here today!"

The crowd suddenly cheered. They were so lucky tonight because they did not have to pay. They could not help but be curious. Who were these two important guests? These two people must be very extraordinary since all of them could get the restaurant's meal for free.

"Mr. Smith, Miss Jiang, this is a gift that was specially prepared for you by our boss. Please accept it."

The restaurant manager came over and spoke excitedly to Jason and Cindy. The waiter pushed over a dining trolley. There was a shiny diamond necklace on it.

Everyone could see that this diamond necklace was bigger shinier than Ray's!

It was priceless!

Everyone's gaze turned towards the two of them. All the patrons stood up and applauded.

All of a sudden, the restaurant was bustling.

Ray's face had turned green. He could not believe what he had seen!

OMG, did he wake up on the wrong side of the bed today? Why was he keep being humiliated?

D*mn it!

How could he still enjoy the meal?

How could he hook up the beautiful girl?

He could see that the girl's attention was now fixed on Jason.

D*mn, D*mn, D*mn it!

Ray was really hated Jason right this moment. Jason had embarrassed him.

No, he must find out who this dude was and taught him a lesson!

After thinking for a while, Ray walked out of the restaurant and dialed a number.

On the other hand, Cindy and Jason were surprised too. They seemed not to expect the restaurant would do these for them.

Well, it must have been arranged by Bruce.

Jason did not say anything and they continued to enjoy their meal.

During the dinner, Cindy finally could no longer keep her curiosity and asked, "Jason, what happened in the villa that day? How's Randy?"

Cindy was unconscious that day, so she did not see Jason's violent attack.

"What's more, I feel that you have changed these days. What does your family do? Do they really just run a restaurant?"

Cindy asked while blinking her eyes. 1

Jason Smith hesitated. He looked at Cindy Jiang, "Do you really want to know?"

Cindy nodded, "Yes."

Jason nodded in agreement and said in a serious tone, "Cindy, in fact, I'm a rich second generation."

Cindy listened, "Well, I know that. Your family owns a restaurant and you bought the villa as well."

Jason frowned and continued to explain, "No, the kind of rich second generation that I mentioned is not the kind that you would think I am. I mean I'm an extremely rich second generation. Very wealthy."

"How wealthy are you?"

Cindy ate a mouthful of her food and narrowed her eyes. Her eyes were as beautiful as a crescent moon. There was a gentle smile at the corner of her mouth.

"Do you know Smith Group?" Jason asked.

Cindy nodded, "I know. I went to their banquet not long ago. It's a pity that I didn't get to meet that Master Smith."

Jason smiled, "Master Smith is actually now sitting in front of you."

"You?"

Cindy was stunned and looked at Jason suspiciously. After a while, she reached out her fair hand to touch Jason's forehead and then touched her own. She pouted her pink little mouth and muttered, "We aren't sick, right?."

D*mn it!

She did not believe him.

Jason was feeling helpless and tried to explain, "Cindy, I'm Master Smith. Please believe me."

Cindy rolled her eyes at him and got up with her bag. She pulled Jason, "All right, all right. Fine, I believe you. Let's go. It's getting late now."

Jason had no choice but to lower his head. She still did not believe him.

Whatever.

It was not too bad, since Cindy had accepted the fact that he was a rich second generation now.

Although, she still did not know his true identity and how rich he was. He still had plenty of opportunities to prove it to her.

Just take it slow. She would find out one day.

The next day, Amanda Yang was bored in the villa.

She had behaved herself very well for the past few days and had moved out of the master bedroom.

She had no choice. Jason was too powerful so she did not dare to be presumptuous.

"Charles, can you tell me what kind of person is Jason? Over the past few years, he has been so tolerant in our family. If it weren't for that incident, I would never know that he was so powerful. Besides that, the woman who hit me was Jason's stepmother!"

Amanda was sitting on the sofa and chatting with Charles who was reading the newspaper.

Amanda trembled when she thought about Juliette Yun.

That woman was so powerful!

Since Jason had such a stepmother, his family background could not be ordinary!

But how could this guy had been hiding a lot of things from her for such a long time?

Amanda had only been behaving herself for a few days and she already started to have bad thoughts.

"Oh! Why are you thinking about these things all day long? If you are worried, you can apologize to Jason yourself. Don't nag about it all day long."

Charles turned the newspaper impatiently.

Coincidentally, Jason returned home. As soon as he entered the villa, Amanda enthusiastically got up to make a cup of tea and handed it to him. With a flattering smile on her face, she said, "Jason, you're home. Come and have some herbal tea. It's good for your health."

Jason was stunned. Amanda suddenly treated him so well. He was really not used to it.

"It's okay. I'm just here to pick up some things and then I'll leave."

Jason smiled and went upstairs.

Amanda was standing downstairs and watching Jason from behind as he walked. When he entered the master bedroom, the smile on her face turned disappeared. She stared and muttered, "Why is he so arrogant? It's like I'm begging him to a drink the tea."

Charles shook his head helplessly. This crazy woman really never learns her lesson.

Amanda went up to Charles when she saw him shaking his head. She put the tea in front of him and said angrily, "If he doesn't want to drink it, you drink it!"

After a while, Jason came back downstairs. Amanda asked anxiously, "Jason, where are you going?"

"I'm accompanying Cindy to buy something," Jason replied and left without looking back.

Amanda felt very uncomfortable when she watched him leave.

If Jason showed her an attitude like this in the past, she would have slapped him in the face. However, she did not dare to do it now. She did not dare for the time being.

"No, no, no! Look at Jason. Did you see the way he treated me just now? He's acting so arrogant! Does anyone in this family still respect me?"

Amanda was unhappy and sat on the sofa, feeling very uncomfortable.

Jason was only acting arrogant because the villa was in his name.

And just because he was related to the Juliette!

However, he was still afraid of Cindy

Yes. She could use Cindy to control Jason!

Amanda did not believe that she could not control Jason.

On the other hand, Jason waited for Cindy downstairs at her company. They were like a young high school couple that were madly in love. They were talking and laughing. Soon, they arrived at the biggest jewelry shop in Shang Jiang City.

Next month was Cindy's birthday, so he had to buy her a decent gift this year.

There was a store named Starseed Jewelry!

As soon as they entered the store, they saw that there were quite a lot of people in the store. There were more than a dozen assistants. All of them were in black uniforms.

No wonder it was the largest jewelry shop in Shang Jiang City. It was so magnificent.

"Sir, can I help you?"

An assistant came over with a polite smile and bent over at a thirty-degree angle.

"Oh! I want to see your range of necklaces," Jason said.

Cindy was holding his arm. Then, she seemed to find something she liked. She trotted over and looked at the shiny jewelry in the cabinet. She liked it very much.

Jason looked around the shop as well. There were different brands in this store. It included gold, silver, diamonds, jade, and so on.

None of it was sold at a low price. The starting price for the jewelry was ten thousand dollars.

The assistants were not ordinary either. They all had a lot of experience, so they were very observant.

One noticed this couple. Even though the man did not look handsome, the woman was very pretty and elegant.

"Sir, are you looking to buy your wife a gift? Your wife is really beautiful. You must have good taste because you have got such a beautiful wife."

Megan Wang's mouth was very sweet. She was really good at flattering people.

Jason smiled. He felt good to be praised by the salesgirl. "Yes, I want to buy a birthday present for my wife. Do you have any suggestions?"

"Yes, look at this psychic necklace. It's the latest style. It suits your wife very well. She will look very elegant wearing it. The necklace has two carats of pink diamond which was cut by Master George in Italy. Not many diamonds in the market have such luster."

Megan took the necklace down from the shelf and introduced it.

Cindy took a fancy to it and could not wait to try it on. "How is it? Is it beautiful?" Cindy looked into the mirror as she turned to ask Jason.

Jason took a look at it. The platinum necklace and shining diamond were sitting on Cindy's snow-white neck. They were so shiny like a white swan.

"It looks good on you. Let's buy it."

Jason said and turned to look at the assistant. "How much is it? Just pay with my card."

Megan was very happy. She did not expect that this ordinary-dressed man was actually a top-ranking guy. He bought it immediately in such a generous way.

"Sir, it's two hundred and eighty-nine thousand, nine hundred and ninety-nine dollars in total. I'll wrap it for you now."

Megan laughed and could not conceal her happiness.

What a rich tycoon!

The necklace cost almost two hundred and ninety thousand dollars!

And it was just a necklace!

This immediately caused a stir in the store.

"Sh*t, that man looks ordinary. He doesn't look like a rich man at all. How could he afford such an expensive necklace?"

"I took a look at that necklace just now. It's really beautiful but it's too expensive. It costs two hundred and ninety thousand dollars!"

"Honey, see, the man treats his wife so well. I want such a necklace too."

Many women were very envious of Cindy at this moment. They were even more curious about Jason.

This man was so rich. In order to make his wife happy, he had spent two hundred and ninety thousand dollars!

However, his wife was indeed very beautiful.

Cindy was stunned when she heard the price and quickly returned the necklace. She smiled apologetically, "Sorry, it's okay. I don't think the necklace suits me."

She did not want to waste the money. Although, Jason still wanted to buy her a birthday present, the two hundred and ninety thousand dollars necklace was still too expensive.

It would be okay if he just bought a hundred dollar necklace for her.

Jason knew what Cindy was thinking. He smiled at her, "I think it suits you very much. Don't worry about spending money. I have the money. This is a gift for you. The price isn't a problem. I'll give you a lot of gifts in the future to let you will stay with me for the rest of your life."

Wow, so romantic!

Many women were moved by Jason's words. They began to despise their husbands and boyfriends.

Look at how Jason treated his wife. In order to make his wife happy, he did not mind spending some money on her.

However, as everyone feeling moved, a discordant voice came from the door all of a sudden.

"Oh my god! It's you, poor man. Can't you find a different place to show off? Can you afford to buy this necklace?"

Ray Bai walked in through the entrance with a sneer. He had his arm around a teenager. She was dressed very coolly in a crop top, mini pants, and braided hair. She even had a piercing in her belly button.

Everyone turned to look towards the entrance of the shop.

The handsome and rich second generation with a cool and fashionable girl were indeed a sight to behold.

As for Megan who was still introducing the necklace to Jason, immediately bowed respectfully when she saw the person standing at the door. She shouted, "Young Master Bai, you're here."

All the other assistants in the store faced the door and respectfully greeted Ray.

Ray felt a lot of pride and held his chin high. He was holding his hot girl next to him and looked proudly at Jason.

"Haha! You came to my store to buy jewelry, but can such a poor dude like you afford to buy any?"

He said in a sarcastic tone.

Many of the customers began to whisper.

"Isn't this Young Master Ray? The owner of Starseed Jewelry? Why is he here?"

"Can't you see that there's a conflict between Young Master Ray and that man?"

"I don't get it. What poor dude? Wasn't this young man going to buy the two-hundred-and-ninety-thousand-dollar necklace? Is he still considered as a poor guy?"

Some people could not understand. Was this how rich people behaved?

A necklace worth two hundred and ninety thousand dollars and still called a poor guy...

Megan Wang was slightly stunned. She looked at Jason Smith. If her young master said that Jason was a poor guy, then he must be. However, how could he afford to buy this new pink diamond necklace worth two hundred and ninety thousand dollars?

There was a trace of anger and disdain in Megan's eyes as she thought this.

D*mn it!

He must be another poor guy who was pretending to be rich just to make his wife happy.

Soon he would say this necklace had some problems or he would find an excuse to go to the washroom. In the end, he would run away.

He might even steal the necklace!

Jason's face was cold. He frowned and looked at Ray Bai, "Oh! It's you. Is this your store?"

Ray felt even prouder when he heard this. The proud expression on his face was becoming more obvious.

As Ray approached, he saw the pink diamond necklace in Megan's hand. He smiled and asked, "Why? Do you want to buy this necklace for your wife?"

When Ray spoke, he looked at Cindy Jiang for a while and could not take his eyes off her.

This woman looked so pure and beautiful. Last night, he was paying so much attention to the beautiful college girl, that he must have not noticed Cindy.

The cool teenager beside him was totally an ugly duckling compared with Cindy.

How could such a good-looking girl belong to this idiotic Jason?

Cindy was so scared that she stepped back from Ray and snuggled up beside Jason. She noticed the way Ray looked at her was very disgusting.

Jason's eyes turned cold. He pulled Cindy behind him and took a step forward, "Excuse me, please be more respectful. I'm here to buy a necklace."

"Haha!"

Ray laughed. He took the pink diamond necklace and said sarcastically, "F*ck, can you afford to buy this necklace? It's two hundred and ninety thousand dollars. Do you think a poor man like you can afford it? Do you feel proud because you know the owner of the Skyway Restaurant? I've inquired about you. You are just a poor son-in-law who lives off a woman. Bah!"

Ray said softly and glared at Jason.

"Don't pretend to be rich if you don't have money! Please take a look at yourself in the mirror and see who you really are."

The cool girl next to him glared at Jason and Cindy as well. She was upset, especially when she saw Cindy.

"Haha, it turns out that you are a loser who lives off a woman. How shameful!"

She cursed. Cindy was much more beautiful than her and Ray gazed at Cindy too. This made her feel very uncomfortable.

When the crowd heard this, they immediately understood and started to criticize.

"F*ck, I thought he was actually a rich second generation. He turns out to be a useless son-in-law who lives off his woman."

"Hah! Such a poor guy still wants to come out to spend money. Don't know where he got the courage."

"Well, poor people have nothing to lose. Losers like him don't even know how to behave themselves. If his mother-in-law found out how he spent his money, he would be in trouble."

The crowd looked at Jason with disdain and the atmosphere soon became tense.

Megan was even angrier at Jason. She quickly put the necklace back in the box and muttered, "Loser! So shameful for an able-bodied guy to live off a woman's money!"

As she said this, she deliberately glanced at Cindy and said in a contemptuous tone, "B*tch! You must work in a bar or something, that's how you found this kind of husband. You'd be better marrying someone honest."

Jason's face immediately became darkened after hearing these words.

He looked at Cindy beside him. She lowered her head and clutched his sleeve tightly. "Jason, let's go. You don't need to buy a necklace."

Her voice sounded sad.

Cindy was a girl who did not know how to handle herself in these situations. This was her flaw.

She was a lady of course, she was born to be soft and gentle.

However, Jason was not willing to give up!

They could scold him, but they could not scold Cindy!

He would kill anyone who provokes his wife!

"Enough!"

Jason shouted. His eyes were wide open, staring at Ray. "It has nothing to do with you whether I'm rich or poor. I'm here today to buy a necklace! Apologize to my wife immediately!"

With this, Jason glared at Megan, "You have to apologize as well!"

Megan was stunned by Jason's glare. She began to feel a little nervous and scared.

"Apologize? D*mn it! What are you pretending to be? A loser like you is afraid to be criticized? Such a loser!"

Megan did not hesitate to scold him. After all, Ray was by her side so she felt confident.

Ray gave Megan a thumbs-up and said with a smile, "Well done Megan. I think you can be the store manager in the future."

"Really? Thank you Young Master Ray! Thank you Young Master Ray!"

Megan was so excited that she could not conceal her feelings. Her eyes shone with elation. She wished she could rush over and kiss Ray right there and then.

Even if he wanted to sleep with her, Megan would probably be willing to do so.

Other customers also criticized Jason.

"Hey! Is this guy insane?"

"Young man, don't buy the necklace. Just go. When your mother-in-law comes later, she will kick you out of the house. Then you won't be able to live off a woman anymore."

Jason was advised by a middle-aged man with a big belly. He had his arms around an ordinary-looking but big-chested woman.

He had noticed Cindy just now. He liked decent women the most.

Therefore, he purposely said a few sarcastic words to Jason so that Cindy would notice him.

"Well, I'll buy the necklace."

The middle-aged man smiled. He did not mind showing off his wealth.

The big chest woman beside the middle-aged man was excited. She made sure everyone knew that he was her husband and even gave him a kiss.

"Beauty, this is my business card. If you need anything in the future, feel free to contact me."

The middle-aged man walked over with a cheeky smile and handed a business card to Cindy. This made the previously excited big breasted woman stamp her feet.

Cindy did not take the business card and refused euphemistically, "It's okay. Thank you."

This made the middle-aged man very embarrassed. He smiled silently and retreated to the side. Then, he began quarreling with his big-breasted lover.

On the other hand, Ray felt very proud of himself. He liked the feeling of forcing people into a desperate situation.

After all, he was so rich.

"You embarrassed me in the restaurant. If I can't teach you a lesson today, my name is not Ray Bai!" He secretly cursed.

"From your intonation, you seem to be very rich. Fine, if you want to buy a birthday gift for your wife then you have to choose the most expensive thing."

Ray laughed evilly. He had already made up his mind. "This necklace only costs two hundred and ninety thousand dollars. Do you think it's worthy for your pure and beautiful wife?"

When Ray spoke, he glanced at Cindy a few more times. He felt his heart beat faster. He must get a woman like her!

Jason nodded and stroked his chin, "I also think this chain is not worthy for my wife. It's too old fashioned."

Everyone almost fainted.

Did this guy understand that Ray was actually trying to make him dig his own grave?

Such a dumbass!

Ray was overjoyed but controlled his emotions very well. This silly man was really stupid. It was so easy for him to fall into his trap.

Ray adjusted his countenance, "Yes, beautiful women must wear gemstones. I don't have these things in my store but there is a lot of gold, silver, and jewelry. In my opinion, you should buy the most expensive one for your wife. Only in this way you can show your love for her. Am I right?"

"Great!"

Jason smiled and watched them silently. He knew what Ray was thinking, but Jason did not care one bit about money. It would not be out of the question for Jason to buy this entire Jewelry store.

"You want to scam me?"

Then let's do it." Jason secretly said to himself.

Ray put his arm around Jason's shoulder and said with a smile, "Brother, you're amazing. It seems that you are very sincere to your wife. Because of this, I won't be stingy. I'll sell the most expensive gemstone necklace in our store to you."

After that, he motioned to Megan, "What are you waiting for? Go and take out that sapphire necklace and show it to this rich guy."

"Okay, Young Master Ray."

Megan nodded and put away her mobile phone. She walked quickly to the security room. She was still very disdainful of Jason.

Megan recorded a video of what had happened in the store and sent it to Starseed Jewelry's group.

She even captioned it with provocative words, "Look, there's a loser confronting Young Master Ray. He wants to buy a two hundred and ninety thousand dollar necklace for his wife!"

After thinking for a while, Megan posted again, "This silly dude is a loser who lives off a woman. Now, he even wants to buy the sapphire necklace!!"

In an instant, discussion broke out in the group!

Everyone was laughing at Jason for being a loser after watching the video.

"Sh*t, he's so stupid! Is he trying to compete with the young master's wealth?"

"Megan, is it the eight million dollar sapphire necklace?"

"F*ck! It is the necklace. The fool must be so f*ck off! He'll never be able to afford it!"

Meanwhile, Master Bai was discussing a business project about the importing of wool to Shang Jiang City. It had been very successful, so he was delighted.

The reason why he had come from the capital city was to monitor the agents. He also wanted to talk about business and bring his youngest son to check it out. This would be a good experience for his training.

He had seen the news from the group and read the heated discussion. He thought that something big had happened.

When he clicked on the video, he saw a man. His jaw dropped instantly!

This guy looked familiar!

He really looked familiar!

It was Master Smith!

Master Bai instantly remembered when Master Smith had spent a lot of money to destroy the Bai's a long time ago!

In those days, the Bai's was the biggest family in the capital city!

All because Master Bai's elder brother had offended Master Smith. The Bai's was almost destroyed and turned into a second-rate family in the capital city. They could put up no resistance!

Master Smith actually showed some mercy to the Bai's by doing this.

This matter had become a taboo subject for the Bai's!

The younger generations did not know.

However, he had met Master Smith before, so his memory was still vivid. He was the protagonist in the video!

Master Bai had no time to be happy. He was so shocked that he broke out in a cold sweat. He immediately called the driver, "Hurry up and go to the jewelry store!"

Chapter 233

Over here, all eyes were on Megan Wang's hands, which were in white gloves. She held a delicate box in her arms and walked to the front hall.

She glanced at Jason Smith, who was calm and composed. She cursed in her heart. "This dumb *ss, let's see how he will buy it later!"

That sapphire necklace was worth eight million!

Everyone looked up and stared at the box in Megan's hand.

Just by looking at the box packaging, one could tell that it was expensive!

Was the sapphire necklace in it?

Many people secretly sighed in their hearts, and at the same time, they despised people like Jason even more.

Why did a toyboy who was good-for-nothing had to show off in front of a young master who owned a jewelry shop?

"It's coming it's coming."

Ray Bai was very excited. This was a good opportunity for him to show off, so he could not let it go. It felt good to have such a dumb ass as a stepping stone for himself.

Megan raised the corner of her mouth slightly. Under everyone's envious and excited eyes, she opened the box carefully, and a very bright sapphire necklace appeared in everyone's sight.

Beautiful!

Grand! Luxurious!

Looked expensive!

This was everyone's thought.

Megan could not hide her pride. She felt very proud. This sapphire necklace was the most precious treasure of their shop.

Megan even imagined that her boyfriend would buy this necklace one day and put it on her at their wedding. It must be very romantic.

Everyone was amazed.

"Wow, so this is the sapphire necklace. It's too beautiful. If you wear it, you will definitely be a noble white swan."

"I want to buy it. I want it. Honey, buy it for me."

"Buy, don't you see the price?! It's more than eight million!"

For a moment, the crowd's exclamations were drowned out by the price of this sapphire necklace.

More than eight million!

It was just a necklace, too extravagant!

Except for the second generation of a top rich family, who would dare to buy it? Who could afford to buy it?

No wonder this necklace had not been sold in the store.

Everyone looked at Jason. Someone sneered,

"Hey, young man, didn't you say that you wanted to buy the most expensive one? Now that Young Master Bai has taken out the most expensive one. Do you want to buy it or not?"

"What the hell! It was eight million? How can a useless man like him afford it?"

"Hahaha, I'm so amused. There will always be someone who thinks too highly of himself."

Everyone was dissing Jason crazily with full of sarcasm.

Ray laughed even more happily, and the corners of his mouth almost reached his ears. He patted Jason on the shoulder and said, "Buddy, I've taken out the necklace for you. You can't just let it be seen and refuse to buy it, right? In this case, I doubt if you really love your wife."

Jason's face was calm, without any fluctuation. He just looked at the sapphire in the box.

It was beautiful, and it would suit Cindy a lot.

He knew that Ray was provoking him. He wanted to let him show off for a while more.

"Haha, he's just a good-for-nothing. If he can afford this necklace, I'll carry his shoes. Ray is obviously richer. This store belongs to him. This guy is just looking for death to compare his wealth with Young Master Bai."

The woman with an umbilical ring who was standing beside Ray said and glanced at Jason with disdain.

Hearing that, Ray held her in his arms and kissed her. "Darling, you have the good taste to chose a boyfriend like me. A loser like him relied on a woman to live."

Cindy could not stand it anymore. She stood up and shouted at them, "What are you guys talking about? Whether my husband has money or not is none of your business. He buys whatever he wants for me. It doesn't matter if it's cheap, I would still be happy."

Jason was stunned. Looking at Cindy, who was so angry for the first time, the corners of his mouth quirked up, and his heart was warm.

"Let's leave. We don't want to buy it. What a sh*t store! Looking down on people!"

Cindy turned around, held Jason's arm, and was about to leave.

Ray jeered, "Haha, idiot! You can't afford it, but wanted to show off."

"Haha, I'm so amused. Look at that guy's face. It's all blue. In the end, his wife has to save his reputation."

"Hey, what a loser. How can such a person have such a beautiful wife? So incredible."

Many men felt sorry for Cindy at this moment. How could a woman as beautiful as a fairy be together with a coward?

Jason looked poor from head to toe.

Just as everyone was ridiculing Jason, Jason held Cindy's hand and smiled gently at her. "Cindy, you are my wife. My wife should be matched with the most expensive one. Buy it. It's not that I can't afford it."

"Jason, you..."

Cindy looked at Jason in a daze and wanted to say something more, but was interrupted by the latter.

"It's okay. Don't worry. It's not the first time for you to know me."

Jason touched her nose and turned to look at Ray. "How much is this sapphire necklace?"

Cindy was stunned. She knew that Jason had some money, but she did not know how much he had.

Could it be that he had met her father-in-law in private?

Otherwise, why did Jason has money now?

"Eight million and twenty-three hundred thousand, I'll give you a discount. Eight million, fixed price."

Ray said it generously. He did not believe that Jason could afford it at all, so what if he discounted it for him?

Upon hearing this, everyone was stunned.

Was this how the rich show off? How could they discount so much?

It was twenty-three hundred thousand!

However, they did not really care about it. All their attentions were on Jason.

This d*mb ass was going to buy it.

More than a dozen customers shook their heads secretly. This idiot, Ray was obviously provoking him to fall into his trap.

If he really bought it, Starseed Jewelry would not lose anything. Instead, people would even praise Ray for having a business mind.

And Ray would be able to humiliate this idiot if he did not buy it.

No one said a word to stop them. They were all watching the show.

"Wrap it up. I'll get this." Jason said calmly.

"Okay, Megan, wrap it up for him. I'd like to see how this guy pays for it later. I wonder if he is going to sell his house or his kidney."

Ray laughed hideously, and his words were full of sarcasm.

Megan was playing with her phone and had been broadcasting live in the group chat. When she heard Young Master Bai's words, she had to put down her phone and asked, "Young master, should I really wrap it?"

Ray put on a false smile and said, "Wrap it. Maybe his wife can afford it."

Just as Megan was carefully packing, Ray's father, Hayden Bai was also watching the live broadcast in the group. He was so anxious that he sweated. "I'm going to die! How did I give birth to such a b*stard! That's Master Smith!"

Master Bai was really in a hurry. He kept urging the driver to rush to the branch.

His son was too stupid!

If he offended Master Smith again, the Bai's could disappear from the capital city.

He would have to place that idiot Ray in confinement after they returned.

Inside the store, Megan finished wrapping it. She looked at Jason and asked, "Pay for it."

Jason shrugged and touched his trouser pocket.

Hmm?

Where was his card?

"Did you forgot your bank card?"

Ray almost could not help laughing. "This guy is so funny."

"Hold on."

Jason also felt a little embarrassed and touched his pocket again.

There was still nothing.

Oh no, he left his wallet in the villa!

The atmosphere froze.

A burst of laughter broke out instantly!

"What the f*ck, you're so f*cking funny, aren't you? You didn't bring your card with you?" Ray burst out laughing.

The customers around and the store assistants inside also burst into laughter.

He was such an idiot.

"Sh*t, it's so embarrassing!"

"Opps, the young man is still young. He was overconfident and insisted on going head-on with the other."

"It's so embarrassing. I can't stand it anymore."

A group of people was laughing and sneering at him.

Jason was also very embarrassed. It was all because he came too hastily.

What should I do?

Cindy stood up again, she went in front of Jason, and shouted at them, "What are you guys talking about? Come at me! What if we don't have money to buy it. My husband wants to buy it from me, which shows that he loves me. I don't mind whether he has money or not. It's just a necklace. I don't want it. Let's go. Let's go back."

"Don't leave, this beauty, I have already wrapped the sapphire. If you don't buy it, are you making fun of me?"

Ray said with a bad look on his face.

"How dare you say that. It happened because your husband wanted to buy you a gift. I think you are just a b*tch."

The woman with an umbilical ring crossed her arms around her chest and cursed with contempt.

"You... what did you say?!" Cindy was furious.

Jason could not bear it anymore. He protected Cindy behind him, and his eyes turned red. He yelled at them, "Enough! Don't slander my wife. I'm going to get the money now!"

"Yo, you're showing off again. You dumb *ss!"

"That's right. You're just pretending to be a fool! Don't come here for fun if you have no money!"

"Take a picture of this b*tch couple and post them online!"

Just as everyone accused Jason and Cindy, a Benz appeared at the door.

When the door opened, a middle-aged man ran out of the car in a panic, and his shoes almost fell off. This man was Hayden Bai.

Looking at Jason and Cindy, who were surrounded in the store, as well as a group of excited customers, Hayden felt a chill in his heart.

"It's over! It's completely over!"

Master Bai had no time to wipe his sweat. He rushed into the store and shouted breathlessly, "All of you shut up!"

Chapter 234

Hayden Bai's voice was very rough, which scared the customers and staff in the store. Everyone shut their mouth.

Looking at the door, it was Master Hayden Bai!

But now Hayden's face was pale and his forehead was full of cold sweat. He glanced at Jason Smith, who had a cold expression on his face, and his heart suddenly skipped a beat.

"Boss."

More than a dozen sales clerks greeted the boss respectfully and returned to their own positions.

Boss Bai was well-known for being stingy. He was good at cutting the salary of his staff.

The salary of these sales clerks would be reduced by half the month if he caught them not working.

"Dad, why are you here?"

Ray still did not know what had happened. He walked over with a cheeky smile on his face.

Slap!

Hayden slapped on Ray's face without any mercy!

Everyone was stunned and did not dare to breathe!

What's going on?

Boss Bai came and slapped his son in the face. What kind of beginning was this?

Ray was also stunned. He covered half of his red and swollen cheek, and roared, "Dad, you are crazy! Why did you slap me?!"

"I'm crazy? You b*stard, you always cause trouble for me!"

Hayden was so angry that he was going to explode. If it were not for the fact that he was his own son, he would have been in the mood to kill him now. "Do you know what you did? Apologize to this gentleman now!"

"Apologize? To him?"

Ray was completely dumbfounded. He pointed at Jason and raised his voice. "Dad, are you old and dumb? You want me to apologize to an idiot?"

"I'm so mad at you! If I don't beat you to death today, you won't have the surname Bai!"

Hayden walked up and wanted to slap on his face again. But Megan, who was on the other side, stopped him.

Megan had a close relationship with Boss Bai, they slept together in the hotel a couple of times, which was their secret.

"Boss, please calm down. Young master didn't do anything wrong." Megan said hurriedly.

"He didn't do anything wrong? He's really pissed me off!"

Hayden shouted and had no time to teach his son a lesson. He bowed and apologized to Jason with a shy smile. He said, "Well, sir, I'm really sorry. Ray is still young. You have a broad mind. Please forgive him. I apologize to you on behalf of him."

"Dad! Why did you apologize to a loser?"

Ray really could not believe that his father would apologize to a good-for-nothing. "He came to our shop to buy things. He hasn't paid yet. It's good enough if we don't get him into trouble."

"Shut up!"

Hayden was so angry that his liver was hurting. His whole body was shaking with rage, and the cold sweat was flowing down one after another.

"Boss Bai, your son has a bad temper. He said that I couldn't afford the necklace from your store."

Jason said calmly. His voice was like a cold blade, piercing into Hayden's heart.

Hayden seemed familiar to Jason, who has a good memory. He knew that he was someone from the Bai's.

What a coincidence! It turned out that this store belonged to the Bai's.

Plop!

Hayden knelt on his knee!

Yes, he was kneeling!

He knelt to Jason in front of everyone. He kept wiping the cold sweat from his forehead, and even his hands were trembling.

"Dad!" Ray exclaimed, "What are you doing?!"

Hayden glared at Ray fiercely and ignored him.

"Mr. Smith, it's all my fault, Mr. Smith. I apologize to you on behalf of my child."

Hayden quickly asked Megan to bring the sapphire necklace over, "This necklace is my gift for Mr. Smith, oh, no, for this beautiful lady."

"Boss Bai, it's not your fault. It's useless for you to apologize to me."

Jason had a faint look on his face the whole time.

Right this moment, everyone could see that Jason's identity was extremely important. He was definitely not a loser.

The customers who had ridiculed him before all shut their mouths at this moment and dared not to breathe!

Who dared to speak?

Even Boss Bai, who owned Starseed Jewelry, was scared by Jason's words and knelt!

Hayden's face froze for a moment and understood immediately. He got up, walked to the front of Ray, and stepped forward to press his head, "Kneel on your knees!"

Ray was very stubborn. How could he kneel like this? He shouted, "Kneel if you want to kneel. I really don't know what's wrong with you. He is a poor man. How could you kneel to him? I can't afford to lose my reputation like this! Our Bai's can't afford to lose our reputation!"

Hayden was anxious, and the anger in his heart broke out completely at this moment. He yelled at him, "What the hell do you know? Do you know who he is? Do you know how our Bai's became a second-class family?"

Ray was stunned, and then he remembered something. He looked at Jason incredulously and widened his eyes.

"How could it be? Dad, you're lying! How could he be that..."

Ray was dumbfounded. The Bai's taboo resounded in his mind instantly!

Terrifying! Horrible!

"Kneel down!"

Hayden did not care. He pressed on Ray's neck and forced him to kneel on the ground. "Mr. Smith, my son apologizes to you. Please forgive him. This necklace, no, everything in the store, you can choose and wear it as my token of appreciation for you."

Hayden was sincere.

This scene completely shocked the customers and sales clerks in the store.

Boss Bai used to be so stingy. How could he apologize to him like this?

Especially Megan, her eyes were wide open at this moment, and she almost could not breathe.

Jason looked around and found that everyone was lowering their heads and dared not look at him.

He looked at the traumatized Ray on the ground and said coldly, "I, Jason, will never owe anyone anything when I buy things. As I said, I have money, why don't you believe me?"

After that, he looked at Boss Bai and said with a faint smile, "Boss Bai, I didn't bring my card today. I'll ask someone to send the money to you tomorrow. I'll take the stuff with me first."

"No, no, Mr. Smith, I'll just gift it to you." Hayden wiped his sweat.

"Are you looking down on me?" Jason said coldly.

Boss Bai was stunned, and then he shook his head desperately and said, "No, no, no, I dare not to. Since Mr. Smith said so, I will go to see you tomorrow in person, and you don't have to send someone here."

"All right," Jason said.

Soon, Jason held the box and went out of the Starseed Jewelry with Cindy.

Everyone finally breathed a sigh of relief. Looking at Jason's figure from behind, they had mixed feelings in their hearts.

What the f*ck!

The necklace was given away for free?

What was that man's real identity?

Hayden was exhausted. He fell down at the door and kept wiping his sweat.

Finally, he breathed a sigh of relief, and then he remembered his foolish son. He scolded Ray, "Go back to the capital city immediately, and you're not allowed to go out anymore! If you dare to go out, I'll break your legs!"

Ray stood up with hatred. He glanced at Jason, who was leaving, and then glared at his father. Then he left the branch with shame and anger.

He turned out to be that Master Smith!

How could it be?

Why was he in Shang Jiang?

When they walked out of the door, Cindy was still in a daze. She stopped Jason, who was about to drive and frowned. She asked suspiciously, "Jason, tell me, does that Boss Bai know you?"

She really did not know what was going on now. Did Jason's family really only own a restaurant?

Why did the boss of a jewelry shop kneel as soon as he saw Jason?

Did they know each other before?

Jason opened the car door and said, "Oh, you mean that Boss Bai, we kind of know each other. He owes me money."

"He owes you money? How much?" Cindy was even more suspicious.

"Not much. Let's talk about it when we get back."

Jason grinned and pulled Cindy into the car.

Looking back at the villa, Amanda pondered at home for a whole day. Especially for Jason's identity, she had been thinking about it all the time.

No, no, no, her status in the family could not be threatened like this.

The more Amanda thought about it, the angrier she became.

On the one hand, she was afraid of Jason, and on the other hand, she was worried that she had no power to speak at home.

If the villa belonged to her, everything would be easy.

If Cindy stopped protecting Jason and even hated him, she would kill two birds with one stone.

"Hey, Charles, do you think this villa cost our Cindy's money? Why does Jason treat me that way?"

Amanda sat on the sofa angrily, staring at Charles, who was playing with paintings and calligraphy while she complained.

"Hey, I say, what do you think about all day? Have you forgotten what happened to Cindy last time? Did Jason warn you?"

Charles, who was wearing presbyopic glasses, glared at Amanda.

Amanda snorted angrily, and her face was full of displeasure. She muttered, "I know, I know, now we can't afford to offend Jason, but I'm uncomfortable. Tell me, why is a good-for-nothing like him suddenly riding on my head? I can't accept it!"

Charles did not bother to talk to her. This crazy woman had to cause trouble every day.

Sooner or later, she would suffer.

After thinking for a while, Amanda got up, picked up her bag, and went out.

She came to the sales center of Dragon City.

As soon as she entered the door, a beautiful woman came up to her and asked with a smile, "Hello, how can I help you?"

"Oh, I live in Palace No.1, and I'm here to find out what's going on."

Amanda said with a smile.

As soon as she said this, all the staff in the middle of the sales center looked over and lined up in two rows respectfully. They bent down and said, "Welcome, Madam."

Oh, my god!

Amanda was shocked, but she was happy immediately.

In particular, many customers who were still wandering around to buy villas showed envious looks to Amanda.

This time, Amanda was even more arrogant. She was so proud and arrogant that the strand of her hair was showing it.

After a while, the manager of the Dragon City came to greet her in person. It was a woman. She spoke gently and asked with a smile, "Mrs. Yang, nice to meet you. What can I do for you?"

"Oh, it's not a big deal. I want to ask, Palace No.1 was bought by our Cindy, right?"

Amanda's face was full of arrogance.

Chapter 235

Amanda Yang came here today to confirm something. She wanted to know who had actually bought the villa?

As long as it had been bought using Cindy Jiang's money, Jason Smith would not be able to show off in front of her.

"Nice to meet you, Mrs. Yang. Palace No.1 is indeed under Miss Cindy's name."

The female manager said with a smile.

"Really? My daughter bought it?"

Amanda was very excited. She was right. It was her daughter who had bought it!

She was so happy!

From now on, Jason could not show off in front of her.

It was just because he was related to Juliette Yun. Why was he acting like he was so great?

So, she, Amanda still had the final say in the Jiang's.

If he dared to be arrogant again, she would make her daughter divorce him!

"Yes, Madam Yang. The villa is under Miss Cindy's name. Anything else that I can help you with?"

The female manager smiled politely.

"Yes, I want to ask if I can add another name to the villa? Please add mine."

Amanda was passionate and anxious.

As long as she added her name to the villa, she would be considered as the owner as well. So she would have the same power as Jason.

"Madam Yang, we need consent from Miss Cindy and Mr. Jason first. The permission from Miss Cindy is the most important. There won't be any problems as long as she agrees to it."

Amanda was very happy when she heard this. It was a piece of cake for her.

Cindy was her daughter so she had to listen to her.

"Then can I ask you another question? What if I want to remove Jason's name from the villa?" Amanda was very concerned about this.

"I'm sorry, Madam Yang. I need consent from Miss Cindy and Mr. Jason."

The female manager said apologetically.

Amanda finally understood what was going on. She did not stay any longer and went home immediately.

As soon as she returned to the villa, she could not wait to tell Charles Jiang, "Charles, I heard that our villa is under Cindy's name. She bought it. Jason must have played a trick on Cindy so that she would add his name to the deed. You must be strong with me this time. Don't let that guy covet our family's property!"

Amanda realised that Jason was plotting something evil on her way back.

Did he have his eye on the one billion dollar investment?

He could not do that!

Charles was stunned for a moment and asked suspiciously, "Really?"

"Oh! Why would I lie to you? Dragon City Villa's manager told me in person!"

Amanda was a little anxious. She rolled her eyes, "Let me tell you something. Although Jason pretends to be dumb, I think he must be hiding something. Maybe he wants Cindy's company. Is it over the one billion dollar investment? We have to think of a way to stop him."

Charles was a little hesitant. He noticed from Cindy's incident that Jason was a very skillful fighter.

"Hey! Amanda, you have to think carefully. Jason is no longer the loser that he used to be. We don't know anything about him. What would we do if we offend him?"

Charles was afraid. Jason had been his son-in-law for three years. Charles had really learnt nothing about Jason over the past three years.

Who on earth was this dude?

Amanda's face darkened. She gritted her teeth and made up her mind. "Don't worry about it. I'll take responsibility if anything happens. Anyway, I must teach Jason a lesson to let him know that I'm the master of this family."

After leaving the jewelry store, Jason drove Cindy back to her company.

At this moment, seven tattooed men rushing into Bi Kang Pharmacy's entrance, breaking the door!

"Cindy Jiang! Who's Cindy Jiang? Come out!"

The leader was a man of around 1.8 meters tall. His arms were covered in tattoos and there was anger in his eyes!

It happened suddenly. The strong man led a large number of people, so it immediately drew the onlookers' attention.

Several security guards rushed over quickly as well and stopped in front of them. They shouted, "Who are you? Get out! We will call the police if you refuse!"

"Call the police? F*ck you! I'm looking for Cindy Jiang!"

The strong man raised the steel rod in his hand and hit the security guard's head. Blood splashed in all directions immediately!

"Ah!"

All of a sudden, the first floor of the company was in a mess!

This guy dared to beat anyone that got in his way!

"D*mn it! I've come here today just to find the person in charge of your company! The rest of you please get out of my way!"

The strong man was holding a blood-covered steel rod. He pointed to five trembling security guards in front of him.

Nothing would stop him!

Mandy Song immediately learned of the situation.

"Director Cindy, something's wrong. Someone is making trouble in the company!"

Mandy ran to the side in a hurry and called Cindy.

"I'll be right there!"

Cindy was on the company's ground floor when she received the phone call. She frowned. She stepped on her high heels and quickly took the elevator to the main floor.

Jason followed her closely. "Cindy, wait for me."

The company was in a mess. The eight strong men who had come to make trouble were confronting the security guards!

"Stop!"

Cindy came forward with a stern look. Firstly, she asked someone to take out the injured security guards. She stood in front of her staff and was guarded by several security guards.

"Are you the CEO of Bi Kang, Cindy Jiang?"

When the strong man saw this beautiful woman in front of him, a trace of lust flashed in the corner of his eyes. However, he suppressed it immediately.

"I'm Bi Kang Pharmacy's CEO. Who are you? Who let you in? Get out immediately or I will call the police!"

Cindy's face was cold. Her tone was one of power.

"Haha." The strong man sneered. He took a few medicine boxes from his followers and threw them on the ground. He roared, "My boss took the medicine your company produces. It did not cure his illness and now he's still unconscious in the hospital! If you don't give us an explanation right now, I will smash your company along with my men!"

The 1.8-meter-tall strong man pointed at Cindy as if he was going to eat her.

Cindy took a look at the medicine box on the ground. She pushed away the security guards in front of her, "This is Bi Kang Pharmacy. Not a hospital! If there's a problem, your boss should ask the hospital. You shouldn't make trouble here! Guards! Throw him out!"

"B*tch, you're asking for trouble! This medicine was developed by your company. My boss became unconscious after he took it. I will kill you if anything happens to my boss!"

The strong man shouted at Cindy.

Cindy was so angry that her face turned pale. She frowned, "Our company only produces medicine that has been tested and approved. If the patient has any problems after consuming the medicine, they should enquire at the hospital about whether they should stop taking them. You can't seek trouble from us! Do we have to be responsible for all the patients that have problems after taking our medicine?"

This was not fair. Someone had done something bad and was putting the blame on the pharmacy.

What a farce!

"D*mn it! The medicine your company produces is harmful!"

This burly man was obviously trying to make trouble. Suddenly, he slapped Cindy in the face. He did not hold back at all!

Several female employees next to Cindy were so scared that they screamed!

The security guards were stunned as well. They would lose their jobs if their CEO got slapped again!

Jason happened to rush in at this moment. When he saw this scene, he became really furious!

These people were obviously here to stir up trouble!

Suddenly!

A cold and overbearing tone resounded through the room. "If you want to continue to fight, I promise that you will never leave this place!"

Cindy was so scared that she closed her eyes. She felt a big strong big hand pulling her over. Then, she leaned into a warm embrace.

The strong man's slap missed its target!

Everything happened so quickly.

Jason pulled Cindy over. Before the strong man could react, he immediately kicked him!

Jason stared at him coldly with his eyes wide open. He shouted angrily, "Who ever claimed that every patient would recover after taking the medicine produced by my wife's company? And how about your boss tries some other medicine? Get out of here right now!"

"F*ck, you're looking for trouble!"

The strong man took several steps back and fell to the ground.

He felt as if his abdomen had been hit by a truck. His intestines were twisted due to the pain.

Who the hell was this guy!?

His kick was so hard and powerful!

Quentin Lei was a master of martial arts. Normal people would never be able to touch him. However, this young man who had suddenly appeared in front of him kicked him with one foot and now he could not even stand up!

The guy was definitely a powerful person!

Quentin felt fear but he had been sent here with an order to make trouble!

He could not give up halfway after he had already been paid. Otherwise, his reputation would be ruined. No one would hire him for this kind of business in the future.

Quentin endured the pain in his abdomen. He got up from the ground and roared, "You're dead! Brothers, come on. Beat him to death! I'll take responsibility if anything happens!"

With the roar of the strong man, several men from behind brandishing sticks. They looked as if they had been unable to control themselves during this!

The female staff shouted immediately when they saw what was happening!

Chapter 236

Jason Smith's heart was stern, and his eyes turned cold!

Bang!

As Quentin Lei finished his words, a loud slap echo in the lobby on the first floor of the company!

Jason's hand made close and direct contact with Quentin's right face, making a loud noise!

He used all his strength in this slap!

As soon as Quentin stood up, the slap made him stagger, and a red palm print directly appeared on his face!

There was a moment of silence out of a sudden. People like Quentin, a local gangster and bullier often fought with others.

However, this slap made his brain buzzing!

All the people present were frozen!

The security guards were very excited. Looking at this young man who stood out and relieved their stress, their eyes were full of tears!

Of course, many people were shocked.

Was he still the husband of CEO, that coward Jason Smith?

That was awesome!

Right this moment, he was the hero in their hearts!

The onlooker staff also reacted after a brief shock. Jason's behavior was just too unexpected!

He launched an attack as soon as he said so!

There were seven or eight tattooed men on the opposite side, and they seemed to make trouble here!

"That's so manly."

Several female employees' eyes were full of adore at this moment. Jason was really too manly.

Look at other male colleagues who were at the scene, they all chose to step back when they encountered this, Jason was the only one who stood at the front!

Some of them were whispering, saying--

"Don't pretend to be strong. If you offended them, we'll be the unlucky ones."

"He's just a f*cking loser who tried to show off. President Jiang is d*mned."

"Let's see how can he solve this problem! He's really over-confident."

Jason chose to turn a deaf ear when facing these whispering.

However, Cindy broke free from Jason's arms. She frowned and glared at him in anger. Her husband was too reckless. If something happened to him, how was she going to live alone in the future?

Cindy was worried about Jason. There were security guards here.

"Are you alright?"

Cindy asked concernedly.

Jason shook his head and grinned.

At this moment, Quentin just realized that it was the first time that someone dared to kick and slap him!

If this news was spread out, how would he able to survive in East Street?

He was so angry and shouted with a pair of scarlet and widened eyes, "B*stard, how dare you hit me? Good, good, good! I'll cripple your hand!"

The few brothers behind him were also shocked by Jason's move. They looked at each other in blank dismay and turned to look at Quentin in front of them.

Jason showed a disdainful expression and pulled Cindy to his back to protect her. He said flatly, "What's wrong with hitting you? If you dare touch my wife, I'll slap you again no matter you believe it or not!"

Since there was already a conflict, there was no need to pretend to be timid.

"Why don't you give it a try?"

As soon as Quentin's voice stopped, another crisp slap sound appeared!

Without hesitation, Jason naturally slapped him again with his backhand.

Awesome!

Bravo!

A real man!

This was everyone's heartfelt!

"Hey, there are so many strange people nowadays, how could you even asking for a slap!"

Jason shook his hand and said innocently.

"D*mn it! Kill him! Kill him! Throw him into the river!"

Quentin was completely pissed off. He had lost his dignity today. If he did not get his revenge, all of his hard works on East Street paid off!

Now his face was swollen like a pig head at the moment, which also caused a burst of laughter around.

"Hurry up! Protect President Jiang!"

Several security guards immediately rushed over and stayed in front of Jason and Cindy.

What a joke!

If these guys on the opposite side went crazy and the CEO was hurt, they all would lose their jobs!

"D*mn it! Go ahead! If anything bad happens, I'll handle it. I have someone behind me to back up us!"

Quentin covered his face and raised his hand with a steel rod. With a loud shout, he rushed forward and fought with the security guard!

Jason had self-aware. When he saw Cindy stepped back under the protection of other security guards, he was ready to step behind.

However, a gangster rushed to Cindy with a stick!

This time, Jason was mad!

He wanted to step back, but he stopped. Then he stood out from the crowd and dragged off the stun rod at the waist of one of the security guards!

"Back off! We'll be in charge of this!"

The security guard touched his waist and did not know what Jason was going to do. As a result, he saw that Jason was already holding a stun rod and walking toward the furious Quentin!

Quentin was still shouting, "Beat them to death! Give them an unforgettable mem..."

Consequential, before he even finished speaking, he saw the stun rod in Jason's hand crackling and emitting blue sparks, and Jason did not hesitate to poke him in the stomach!

"Mem, mem, mem, mem..."

After being hit by the stun rod, Quentin was twitching with rolled eyes and mouth twisted.

The last word "mem" also kept repeating in his mouth. Jason laughed, watching Quentin fell to the ground with his eyes rolling and exploded hair.

Puff!

Everyone was stunned by the scene in front of them!

They did not expect that the scene would change so fast!

Was he singing?

Then, Jason took the stun rod and poke out the rest of the gangster one by one. No one could stop him because he was moving too fast!

Looking at the eight gangsters lying on the ground twitching all over, Jason dropped the electric baton cooly, swept his hands, and looked disgusted.

Too strong!

Everyone was dumbfounded, including Cindy. At this moment, she opened her mouth and looked at Jason in front of her with an incredible look.

Although Cindy had seen Jason beating people with her own eyes, very powerful.

But what was going on now?

He was able to deal with these strong men from the gangland on his own!

And just with a stun rod.

Did he do the same thing when he dealt with Randy last time?

Jason felt countless eyes staring at him. He turned to the security guard and said, "Why are you standing stunned there? Call the police."

"B*stard, you... You're in trouble. My boss sure won't let you go..."

Quentin lay on the ground, shaking his body, raising his neck and squeezed out a sentence.

"I don't like others to threaten me."

Jason directly bent down to pick up the stun rod on the ground and stabbed him again in front of everyone!

Bucket sweat!

Everyone was dumbfounded, especially Mandy. Her eyes were widened.

Jason was a poor lot. How could he just start a fight without saying anything?

Impressive! Impressive!

This farce finally ended under the handling of Cindy.

Back in the office, Jason sat down in the round of applause and praise of the crowd.

In the past, these people had rolled their eyes and look down on Jason.

Right this moment, the feeling of being praised and admired was really cool!

"Jason, come to the office with me."

Cindy's suddenly appeared and looked a bit annoyed.

Before Jason could stay a little longer on the chair, he went out with the envious discussion of the crowd.

In the CEO's office, an angry voice spread all over the whole floor.

"Jason Smith! Who asked you to intervene in our Bi Kang's internal affairs? You are just a useless husband of CEO Jiang. Do you understand the rules? Do you know the rules and regulations of our company?"

A handsome man angrily scolded Jason, he said with a gloomy face, "CEO Jiang, I don't care how you deal with it, Our company won't welcome such a loser in the

A handsome man angrily scolded Jason, he said with a gloomy face, "CEO Jiang, I don't care how you deal with it, Our company won't welcome such a loser in the future! Also, this matter is all his responsibility and has nothing to do with our company."

Harrison was angry. He was the vice CEO who just on board. He had the Yun's as his backer!

This drama was arranged by the Yun's, which is from the madam.

Harrison just found some rogues and hooligans to make trouble. His purpose was to put Bi Kang to shame.

Harrison did not dare to ask why madam would start a fight on Bi Kang which was just a small company.

But now everything turned bad, Jason, who suddenly appeared, actually solved the matter!

And he heard from his subordinates that he knocked down the eight-strong men unconsciously with the stun rod!

This was b*llshit!

Before he came, Harrison had inquired about Jason's identity. He was just a son-in-law who came into the family to live under his wife.

What was wrong with him?

Cindy sat on the swivel sofa chair of CEO and looked at her husband in front of her.

"Vice CEO Li, I'll handle this matter. Jason did it because he wanted to protect the staff of the company. If something goes wrong, the company should come forward, right?"

Cindy interrupted Harrison's accusation of her husband.

Harrison suddenly appeared to be here just a few days ago.

She only knew that the Li's had some power and influence in Shang Jiang.

The Li's was also a member of the board of directors in Bi Kang.

Now that Bi Kang had been invested ten billion by the Smith Group from the capital city, there were too many people who wanted to share a piece of cake.

"No, I don't agree. The company did not have responsibility for this matter!"

Harrison was very mad. He kept reproaching Jason, "The company does not just own by you, Cindy alone! You're just a puppet that was pushed out by our board of directors. You're not qualified to say anything! Today, I make it clear. What happens if someone really goes wrong because of the medicine we produced? Your husband has beaten him now. What if they make trouble?"

"So, he must take all the responsibilities!" Harrison shouted, patting the table.

Cindy frowned slightly. She knew that this matter had nothing to do with Jason, but if Harrison reported it to the board of directors, Jason would not be able to solve this matter.

"Finished?"

Jason shrugged his shoulders and looked cool at Harrison in front of him.

"What's your attitude?"

Harrison's face darkened. "Look, you're just a loser raised by President Jiang. Be polite when you speak to me!"

Harrison stood up and pulled the collar of his suit, appearing to be arrogant and domineering.

However, the next second, Jason walked up to him and gave him a frosty stare. "Who sent you here?"

Chapter 237

Harrison Li was stunned. He looked into Jason's eyes and suddenly felt flustered.

What was wrong with this guy?

Why didn't he look like a good-for-nothing?

"What are you doing? Who sent me here? I'm the deputy director here! Who do you think you are? How dare you talk to me like this?"

Harrison's face turned cold, and he stared at Jason arrogantly.

Jason did not give in at all. He said calmly, "Then I'll give you a piece of advice, Deputy Mr. Li. Don't mess with my wife, and don't mess with me."

After all, Jason was the heir of a big family, so he was very accurate in judging people.

This Harrison was not a good person.

Haha!

Harrison sneered. How dared a good-for-nothing threaten him?

Ridiculous!

He was from the Li family and backed by the Yun family. How dared he, an idiot, be so bold! He was courting death!

"Well, well, well! President Jiang, this is your good husband. He is really awesome. I'll report today's matter to the board of directors right now. I want to see how the board of directors will deal with it!"

Harrison turned to take out his phone and was about to call.

But suddenly his eyes blurred, and the phone in his hand was gone.

"Childish. Why are you still rat others out at this age? Are you incompetent?"

Jason was playing with the phone he snatched from Harrison, with a smile hung on his mouth.

He bought this company.

What board of directors? It was just Jason's release of power.

However, he really did not know when a deputy director got promoted in Bi Kang.

He has to ask Joe Qiao about this matter later. Or, he would remove the board of directors and hand everything over to Cindy. She could handle the whole company.

"You! What did you say?!"

Harrison widened his eyes. It was the first time that someone dared to contradict him. He said angrily, "President Jiang, take a look! How can such a person enter our company?"

"That's enough!"

Cindy's face darkened. She glanced at Jason coldly and said, "Jason is my husband. Everyone knows what happened today. It's an outsider who makes trouble. If something really happens, I will bear it."

"Jason. Put down the phone and go out first."

Although Cindy was the executive director of the company and owned sixty percent of the shares, she knew she could not decide everything.

There was the board of directors behind her, which was the real center of power.

Moreover, with the investment of outside funds, Bi Kang was no longer the old Bi Kang.

It was a boisterous place with different kinds of people.

Jason shrugged his shoulders and threw the phone to Harrison. He stared at Harrison coldly and went out.

In the office, Jason heard several female employees whispering.

"There's a new deputy director in the company. He's quite handsome."

"I heard that he's from the Li family in Jinling. He's quite powerful in Shang Jiang."

"The First Young Master of Jinling, I really hope such a prince charming would have a crush on me."

"Dream about it, you little b*tch!"

.....

After hearing a few sentences, Jason turned around and walked out of the company. He called Joe and asked, "Joe, what's going on with Bi Kang? Didn't I buy it? Why are there other people buying shares? Who is that Harrison?"

"Young master, this was decided by Madam Yun a few days ago. She said that there must be someone she could trust in the group's investment. So she arranged for the members of the Li family in Jinling."

Joe was at the airport, and he said respectfully.

Jason frowned. It was Juliette Yun.

Did she start to attack Cindy?

Or did she wanted to contain his energy?

"Okay, I got it."

Jason was speechless and hung up the phone.

Juliette had meddled too much. He had to give her a lesson.

Otherwise, she would really think he was a trapped beast.

On this side, after Harrison came out of the CEO's office, he went to the rooftop and dialed a number. He said in a low voice, "Madam, things went wrong. A man named Jason appeared out of the way. He's Cindy's husband."

On the phone, a dignified female voice replied, "Okay, I got it."

Hanging up the phone, Harrison gritted his teeth with hatred. Who was Jason?

A piece of rat shit ruined his show.

When it was time to get off work, Cindy walked out of the door and said to Jason, "Come and have dinner with me tonight. The company's business partner comes to talk about something. It's the third time. I can't drink. You have to help me."

Jason agreed without thinking.

"Where are we going?"

Getting in the car, Jason asked casually.

Jason could see Cindy's prominent figure under the seat belt from his view, which caught his glance and he almost spurted out blood from his nose. Her figure was indeed in the golden ratio!

His wife's figure was so perfect!

In the car, Cindy had taken off her coat a long time ago. It was a white professional woman's blouse, which made her look sexy and elegant.

"Kempinski."

Cindy replied and began to make up. After all, they represented Bi Kang Pharmacy, it was important to keep a good reputation. Moreover, it was an important business partner of the company, about the sales of their newly developed anti-cancer drugs.

Bi Kang would rank first among all the pharmaceutical companies in the country if they listed this new medicine successfully.

"Hey, do you think I look good in this?"

Cindy looked into the mirror and asked Jason.

Jason turned his head and said with a smile, "Of course, my wife is the prettiest."

Cindy rolled her eyes at him. But she was happy in her heart and said, "You always know how to make me happy."

Suddenly, she thought of something and said, "By the way, Jason, accompany me to the pregnancy check-up in a few days."

Jason responded and said, "I'll send and pick you up from work in the future. Don't work too hard. You're pregnant now."

Cindy said, "Oh, I'm not a child. I know what I should do. I'm not so pampered."

The business partner who has been waiting patiently in front of Kempinski Hotel saw a BMW 5 series stopped at the door at this moment.

Austin Ning specially dressed up today. He was in a well-ironed suit, which added a lot to his handsome facial features. There was a faint smile on his face.

When he saw Cindy got out of the car, the corner of his mouth showed a trace of lasciviousness.

He prepared a trap tonight. As long as he won Cindy tonight, he did not believe that this woman could still maintain a cool and noble attitude in front of him!

Before he came to Shang Jiang, he investigated Bi Kang Pharmacy and the new CEO Cindy Jiang.

What a rare beauty!

But it was a pity. It was said that she had a good-for-nothing husband and a sick daughter.

He had parted in discord with Cindy on the previous three times. This time, he must win this woman.

He felt very excited when he thought of the scene that the woman, who had a hot body and had been ignoring him, begged for mercy under his body.

Austin straightened the tie around his neck and strode out. When he saw Jason following behind Cindy, his face instantly darkened!

How dare she brought a man with her for their dinner? Did she think that he did not exist?

Austin had arranged for today's trap for too long. He would not allow any accident to happen!

Those who blocked his way would be dead or disabled!

Behind Austin was the Ning's. In the entire Southern River District, the Ning's had the right to speak.

This time, the trap for Bi Kang Pharmacy was prepared carefully.

This was an important business, those who got it, would earn a lot of money!

After all, it was the investment of the Smith Group from the capital city.

"Director Jiang, I've been waiting for you for a long time."

Austin pulled the tie around his neck, squeezed out a smile, and walked out. He reached out his big hand and held it with Cindy's delicate hand.

This little hand was cold and soft as if it was boneless.

Her skin was as smooth as milk.

Tonight, he would conquer this woman, and the Bi Kang behind her!

Jason followed behind Cindy. He glanced around and saw a little displeasure on Cindy's face.

He was also unhappy, but this was a courteous handshake when they talk about business. Jason could not do anything about it.

One second, two seconds, Austin was fascinated by Cindy's beauty. He was absent-minded for a moment and forgot to let go.

Cindy frowned. She did not want to attend this dinner, but she had no choice because Bi Kang Pharmacy had business with this partner. Especially about the sales channels!

Bi Kang Pharmacy had recently developed a new type of anti-cancer drugs, whose cure rate was as high as seventy percent!

Almost two times better than all those anti-cancer drugs in the market.

This could be the most powerful anti-cancer drug in the history of mankind!

Bi Kang Pharmacy had spent a lot of money to develop this anti-cancer drug. It was still in the stage of clinical trials currently.

Once it succeeded, it would bring great profits to Bi Kang Pharmacy. It would also attract international society's attention and became the first effective anti-cancer drug in the world!

Bi Kang Group had already begun the highest level of confidentiality procedure for the new anti-cancer drug. Only Cindy, the board of directors of Bi Kang, and the directly involved researchers knew about it.

The Ning's Group, the sales partner of the anti-cancer drug, had one-third of the sales channels in the entire Southern River District. They had rich resources and powerful economic strength.

Therefore, Cindy was concerned about the cooperation with The Ning's Group.

However, their request was too much. They wanted sixty percent of the profit.

Cindy withdrew her hand and said with a smile, "Director Ning, should we go in?"

Austin smiled embarrassedly and explained, "President Jiang, you're so beautiful today. I was almost fascinated by you."

What the f*ck!

Hearing this, Jason's face turned cold.

"Does this man really think that I do not exist?"

Chapter 238

Jason said coldly, "Watch your mouth! She's my wife!"

Austin did not care about Jason at first, but when he said this, his face immediately twitched, and he turned his head and stared at Jason coldly!

He was already in a bad mood, but when he heard Jason's words. He sneered immediately and looked up and down.

"So you're CEO Jiang's loser husband. Not bad. I've heard of you when I came to Shangjiang. Well, just someone who relied on a woman to live."

Austin's face was full of sarcasm.

It turned out that this was Cindy's husband. Sure enough, he was a loser.

How could such a man be worthy of Cindy?

Jason did not seem to care. He shrugged his shoulders and said, "Sorry, my body can't cope with stress. The doctor said that I'm suitable to work, that's why I need to depend on my wife. Are you not convinced?"

Jason did not hold back and said to him.

He could tell that the so-called Director Ning had no good intentions.

"You!"

Austin was angry. Several of his subordinates behind him were also staring at Jason fiercely. As long as Austin gave an order, they would definitely rush to him immediately and tear the man's mouth into pieces!

Cindy frowned, she rolled her eyes at Jason, and said with a chuckle, "Director Ning, don't mind. Jason is my husband. He's just a bit straight-forward, hope he won't affect our cooperation."

Austin snorted and glared at Jason angrily. "Well, for the sake of President Jiang, I will let you go for the time being!"

He did not want to make the situation worse. Otherwise, his plan would not be easy to carry out.

Austin, Cindy, and Jason were sitting in the large private room. Around them, there were four security guards who stood silently.

"Director Ning, how do you want to talk about it?"

Cindy acted decisively without any hesitation. She took her seat and went straight to the point.

"Hey, CEO Jiang, there's no one else tonight. Don't call me Director Ning. Just call me Austin."

Austin smiled. When he said this, he did not forget to take a few glances at Cindy's chest. The curve of her body was really amazing!

It was even worth it to die in the bed of a beauty.

Austin thought if he could sleep with Cindy tonight and smell the seductive fragrance from her body, he would be willing to die!

Cindy frowned slightly. She noticed Austin's eyes with a trace of evil desire.

Of course, Jason also saw that. Austin had already been on the death list in his heart.

"Then how do you want to talk about it?" She asked coldly.

Austin got up and poured a glass of liquor for Cindy and Jason. He said with a smile, "Well, let's drink and eat first. We'll talk about cooperation later."

Obviously, everyone knew that Austin just wanted to get

Cindy and Jason drunk to carry out his plan conveniently later.

Jason looked at the full cup in front of him, which was a lot of alcohol.

This guy really had bad intentions on Cindy!

The smile on Cindy's face faded, and she said coldly, "Sorry, Director Ning, I can't drink."

She also knew that Austin had bad intentions about her.

"It's okay. Your husband was here."

Austin turned his head and looked at Jason with a smile, saying, "He can help you to drink it."

"Haha, dare to battle me. I'll let you drunk!" Austin thought.

As long as he made Jason drunk, wouldn't Cindy has to kneel in front of him obediently?

Jason raised his eyebrows and looked at Austin as if he was looking at an idiot. He said, "Are you sure you want to drink with me?"

"Why do you not dare to?"

Austin sneered, with a mocking look on his face.

Cindy regretted joining this dinner. She gently kicked Jason under the table and signaled him not to be impulsive.

"If you are a man, bottoms up!"

Austin was very good at observing people's words and expressions, and now he was provoked again.

He got looked down upon.

Jason was a little pissed off. He suddenly stood up with his cup in his hand and shouted, "What are you shouting for? It's just liquor. Come on!"

At this time, Jason looked like a fool who was easily irritated. He raised his glass and was about to drink!

This made Austin happy. He had planned to solve Jason's problem with a little effort, but he did not expect that this man would be so easy to provoke!

How unsophisticated!

The next step was to get him drunk. As long as this man got drunk, his plan would be smooth!

As for Cindy, hahaha, Austin had prepared something for her!

Cindy was anxious. She frowned and kept winking at Jason, but he did not look at her at all.

What was wrong with her husband. Couldn't he tell that Austin wanted to get him drunk?

Cindy was anxious in her heart, but she could not stop him. She could only keep winking at Jason.

Austin raised his goblet and bottoms up with Jason.

Not even a drop was left!

"Haha, you're really good at drinking! Nice!"

Austin, who was smiling, poured another cup for Jason.

Jason looked at the full glass of liquor in front of him and smiled faintly.

Drinking?

Humph. He drank a lot before.

This amount of liquor was not even enough for him.

"Come on, brother, this glass is for you!"

Austin raised his glass and bottoms up again.

He was an experienced businessman. After participating in all kinds of dinner, he was already well trained, he could handle a lot of alcohol.

What's more, he had arranged for someone in Kempinski Hotel, so he was not worried that Cindy could escape out of here tonight!

"Cool! Here I toast to Director Ning! Just now, I was too straightforward and offended you. I hope Director Ning doesn't mind."

Jason was not stupid. At this time, he was just accompanying him to drink to remove his doubts.

Cindy, who was sitting next to him, was not feeling well. She was so anxious that she kept kicking him under the table. However, Jason ignored her and continued to drink.

Cindy thought in her heart and increased the strength under her feet, but Jason acted as if he did not feel anything. He drank a whole glass of liquor and shouted, "Cool!". He sat down and put his big hand under the table, pressing it on Cindy's thigh, indicating that she did not need to worry.

She glared at Jason angrily, and her pink lips were about to say something. When Austin saw there was a hint of innocence from Cindy's expression, the beast in his body was going to rush out!

He could no longer wait to pounce on Cindy!

At the thought of this, Austin's heart was filled with unknown anger!

How could such a perfect lady marry a good-for-nothing!

Austin's face darkened. He stared at Jason gloomily and muttered in his heart, "Loser, you don't deserve her! Wait and see, I'll definitely sleep with your wife!"

Austin picked up another liquor and filled Jason's cup. "Come on. We better clear up the bottles!"

"Sure, sure."

Jason raised his glass and clinked with him.

Next, for more than half an hour, Jason and Austin each drank a lot of liquor as if they were drinking water. The table was filled with at least seven empty bottles!

This really freaked Cindy out!

Were they drinking alcohol?

How could they drink alcohol like this?

Did they want to die?

At this time, Austin was holding a goblet. His face was red, and he was dizzy. He could no longer tell the direction.

Now he only felt a burning pain in his stomach. If he continued to drink, he was afraid that he was going to have gastric perforation!

Looking at Jason again, he looked as if nothing had happened to him!

Austin was not convinced and staggered. He patted Jason on the shoulder and laughed, "Haha, cool. Come on, let's drink again!"

After drinking this cup of liquor, Austin fell directly to the ground and kept vomiting!

He felt that his stomach was as painful as being cut by a knife, and there was a burning pain.

Austin covered his stomach and shouted with a painful expression, "Quick... Send me to the hospital!"

Several bodyguards rushed up and dragged Austin, who wailed with a pale face out.

Jason's eyes were full of disdain, and he thought in his heart, "Dare to drink with me, I'll let you die!"

Then, Jason smiled happily, and Cindy on the side looked at him as if he was a monster.

"Honey, are you drunk?"

Cindy asked worriedly.

Jason smiled and said, "It's okay. Your husband can drink a lot. It's not a big deal."

In fact, Jason's stomach did not feel well either.

"Let's go home."

Cindy helped Jason out of the room and drove back to the villa.

Amanda had been busy for a whole day. When she saw Cindy coming back with the half- drunk Jason, she hurried forward and asked, "What happened?"

"He drank too much," Cindy said.

They helped Jason into the room. Cindy cleaned and changed his clothes for him. It took her a lot of effort to take care of Jason before she went downstairs.

"Oh, come here Cindy. I have something to tell you."

Amanda was in the living room on the first floor. She hurried to pull Cindy down the stairs and sat on the sofa.

"What's wrong, mom? What's the matter?" Cindy asked.

"I have heard about it. I want to ask you. Can you add your dad's and my name to this villa? Also, can you get rid of Jason's name? This is our family's belonging, so you can't give it to the others."

Amanda said anxiously and nervously.

Cindy was stunned, and her face immediately turned cold. She said, "Mom, what are you talking about? I didn't buy this villa. Jason bought it."

Chapter 239

Jason bought it?

Impossible!

"Cindy, what are you talking about? Don't defend Jason. I inquired about it earlier today. The villa is under your name."

Amanda smiled in embarrassment but felt a little flustered deep down.

Because Cindy did not look as though she was lying.

Was it true?

However, this villa cost two hundred million dollars and it was not bought by using the money from Cindy's company. How could that loser, Jason have such a large sum of money?

"Mom, do you think I have enough money to buy this villa?"

Cindy asked with a straight face.

"Didn't your company receive a one- billion- dollar investment from the Smith Group in the capital city? Didn't you use that money?"

Amanda gritted her teeth and shook her head.

Cindy looked at Amanda and said helplessly, "Mom, do you know how serious it would be if someone found out that I was using the public funds? Am I the kind of person who would spend the company's money just to fulfill my own desire?."

"Let me tell you something. The investment money from the Smith Group in the capital city hasn't even been transferred to my company yet."

After that, Cindy turned around and went upstairs. Amanda was completely dumbfounded in the living room. She sat there alone with her mind went blank.

If Cindy's company had not got the investment money, it meant that Cindy must have not bought the villa.

How could this be?

However, the villa was definitely under Cindy's name. Did Jason really buy the villa?

If it had really been bought by Jason, then what was his identity?

How could he have so much money all of sudden?

Amanda was scared and sweated all over. She rushed to the bedroom and tugged at Charles.

"Hey! Why are you still awake in the middle of the night?"

Charles sat up with a look of grievance. He leaned against the bed and put on his presbyopic glasses.

"Keep your voice down."

Amanda patted on Charles, then looked at the door of the bedroom, "Charles, let me tell you something. Cindy told me that she didn't buy the villa. It was Jason who bought it."

"Didn't you say that it was bought using Cindy's company's investment money?"

Charles felt that things were different so he asked in a serious tone.

Amanda shook her head desperately, "She told me that her company hasn't got the investment money yet."

Charles nodded and looked at the ceiling. He said impatiently, "Just sleep. It doesn't matter who bought it."

Slap!

Amanda slapped Charles's face. She stared at him and scolded, "What do you mean by 'It doesn't matter who bought it'? If Jason really bought the villa, how can I in charge of the family in the future? He will never respect me again!"

Charles was so angry. He shouted, "Amanda, are you crazy? This is not your house. It was Jason who bought it! Jason bought it! I've told you many times. Be nice to Jason but you never listen to my advice. Have you forgotten how Jason warned you? How can you be so annoying? Do you really think that Jason is still the loser son-in-law you used to bully?"

Charles' words made Amanda speechless. She sat on the bed and glared at him.

"I don't care. I want to in charge of the family."

Amanda gritted her teeth as she said this.

Charles was angry. He covered himself with a quilt and fell to sleep. "Go to sleep! I don't want to talk to you! Sooner or later, you will ruin this family."

Amanda sat on the bed and glared at Charles. She kicked him several times to stop him from sleeping and cursed, "What do you know? I'm doing this for our own good. Jason bought this villa. It doesn't have our names on it. What can we do if he chases us out one day?"

Amanda finally fell asleep after muttering for a while.

Jason woke up early the next morning with a bit of a headache.

His bedroom door opened just as he was about to get up.

"Hey! Jason, I made a nutritious soup for you to cure your hangover. It will settle your stomach. Drink it while it's still hot."

Amanda came in with a bowl of soup and a flattering smile on her face.

Jason was stunned. This was the first time that his mother-in-law had been friendly to him. She had even made a bowl of soup for his hangover.

"Thank you."

Jason smiled politely.

Amanda sat at the bottom of the bed and watched Jason drinking. She smiled, "Hey! Don't be so polite. You are my son-in-law. Who should I treat well if it's not you."

If a stranger heard this conversation, they would probably think they had a great relationship.

However, Jason sensed a little sarcasm when he heard Amanda's words.

Amanda was so friendly this morning, she must have some bad intentions.

"Mom, what's the matter?" Jason asked.

Amanda hurriedly said when she heard this, "No, it's okay. What kind of problems could possibly I have? Oh, please get up early Jason. I brought you breakfast. Go downstairs and have it."

After that, Amanda got up and left.

Jason shook his head helplessly as he watched Amanda leaving.

He could read Amanda's mind.

They went downstairs and sat in the dining room. Jason drank milk and ate some steamed buns. Amanda was sitting opposite him with a smile. It was quite scary because she had been staring at Jason for a while.

"Mom, are you okay?"

Jason was speechless. He felt uncomfortable because Amanda kept staring at him.

Amanda chuckled, "It's okay, nothing. Enjoy your breakfast."

Jason was feeling helpless. He went out after finishing his breakfast.

Amanda sent him to the gate personally and then looked at Jason as he left. The smile on her face immediately turned cold and she muttered, "This dude doesn't look special at all. How come he suddenly has the money to buy a villa?"

"Have you forgotten Juliette Yun?"

Suddenly, Charles, who was carrying a birdcage appeared behind Amanda, reminded her.

This startled Amanda. She patted him a few times, "Yes. Yes. Juliette, that b*tch is his stepmother and she looks like a rich lady. In my opinion, Jason could be a rich second generation. Did he run away from home because of his stepmother?"

Charles shook his head, "I don't know. However, I advise you to behave yourself."

After that, Charles went out for a walk.

Amanda was very annoyed. When she returned to the villa, she thought about it for a while. She called Josephine Yang and invited several relatives to the villa.

Meantime, in Shang Jiang City's hospital.

"Trash! All losers! Why are you so useless?"

Austin Ning lay in a single bed ward and roared down the phone.

All of his followers stood beside him with their heads down. They did not dare to make a sound.

"Today, I must break all of his limbs. Arrange for someone to go there now. Right now! Right now!"

Austin smashed his cell phone to the ground angrily and stood up in front of the window with a gloomy face.

D*mn it! I was so embarrassed last night.

Austin had never lost a drinking game with anyone.

But he had actually lost to a person who lived off his wife!

All of his followers were also useless because they could not even guard one person!

Austin's heart was burning with anger. All of the previous night's plans had been ruined because of Jason!

Not only had he failed to take down Cindy, but he was also lying in the hospital as well.

"Jason! I'll make you suffer for the rest of your life!"

Austin looked very scary when he hit the bed with his fist while gnashing his teeth,

.....

After leaving the villa, Jason took a few steps and got ready to board a bus to the company. He had not been there for a long time so he did not know what was going on in the company.

He was really a cool boss who just let the staff do their work.

There were a lot of people on the street. A few people were not far behind Jason, smoking as they glanced at him. They looked at their phones and looked at Jason. Then, they threw down their cigarette butts and followed him stealthily.

Jason put his hands in his pockets and stood at the bus station. He was being followed by several people.

They were observing the crowd around them.

However, they did not know that Jason realized and sneered at their behavior.

Jason had long discovered that there was a group of people following him but he did not let them know.

Was it Harrison Li or Austin Ning from last night?

After thinking about it, Jason left the bus station and pretended to go shopping. After a while, several people behind Jason saw him turning into an alley. They looked at each other and thought this was their opportunity.

Two of them followed Jason into the alley. The other two were smoking at the entrance of it.

The leader had a tattoo of an eagle head on his neck. He stared at Jason in front of him, checked the entrance of the alley a few times. Then waiting till he got the signal from his brothers, he slowly took out a pocket knife from his waist!

"I can get fifty thousand dollars if I stab this dude!"

He was secretly happy with this. He did not expect it to be so easy.

This would be easy money because the guy looked so weak.

He held the pocket knife in his hand and the blade reflected some silver light in the alley!

Jason suddenly turned around and looked innocently at the man behind him who was holding a pocket knife. He pretended not to see it in his hand and asked with a grin, "Brother, are you here to pee as well?"

The tattooed man was shocked by Jason suddenly turning. The corner of his eyes twisted and he tightly gripped the pocket knife in his hand. Suddenly, he attacked. "F*ck you! Go to hell!"

The tattooed man had a look of cruelty. In his eyes, Jason had to die!

He was worth fifty thousand dollars!

Chapter 240

Jason looked at the menacing tattooed man and shook his head helplessly. He moved his arm and said, "You forced me to do that. Don't blame me."

"Bang!"

The slap was so loud!

Jason's palm had close contact with the tattooed man's face.

The tattooed man was hit by this slap and turned 360 degrees in place!

"You... How dare you hit me!"

The tattooed man finally stopped turning. He was dizzy. He shook his head and pointed at Jason, roaring.

"Why would I dare not? Do you want to try again?"

Jason grinned and slapped him again!

The tattooed man felt that his face was hit by a heavy iron plate before he could even see how the other person struck out, then his body began to turn uncontrollably!

This was not over yet. Jason slapped him with both left and right hands, and the sound of slapping was endless in the dark alley!

Jason did not stop until he got tired of slapping his face.

The tattooed man's face was swollen like a pig face with blood in his mouth. He shook his head and knelt on the ground while gabbling something.

After that, Jason put his hands in his trouser pocket and glanced coldly at the other guy who stood in the corner.

He did not dare to move.

"Please... Please spare my life!"

This guy was so scared that he quickly knelt on the ground and climbed in front of Jason's feet.

He had never thought that his boss would fall to the ground after being slapped by the weak man in front of him. Every slap he made was so hard!

He was really a f*cking tough guy!

This guy was a little dumbfounded. Who was the gangster here?

Young Master Ning said that this guy was just a good-for-nothing.

But this guy was more ruthless than anyone else!

Jason smiled and touched his head. He was so scared that his whole body trembled, he shrank back and his eyes were full of horror!

Hmm?

Was he so scary?

Jason said innocently, "Well, why don't you slap yourself? How about a hundred times?"

"Huh?"

That guy was in despair, a hundred times?

Then wouldn't he have a swollen face like his boss?

"Err, can we stop joking? Let's make it ten times?" He asked.

Jason shook his head and said seriously, "No, I don't give a discount. If you think it's too much, I'll help you."

"No, no, no! I'll do it myself."

When this guy heard that Jason was going to help himself, he shook his head like a rattle drum.

Bang!

With rhythmic slapping sounds in the alley. Jason glanced at the two people at the entrance of the alley.

The two men saw what happened just now. They were so scared that they were stunned on the spot. Their pants were wet with urine, and the cigarettes in their mouths were burned half too.

When they saw Jason looking at them, they screamed and ran away!

Jason shrugged his shoulders helplessly and complained, "So boring."

"Let me ask you a question. Who sent you here?"

Jason turned around, looked coldly at the guy on the ground, and asked.

The guy whose cheeks were red and swollen replied in a buzzing voice, "It's Young Master Ning. He said if we make you injure. We could get fifty thousand."

He did not dare to hide anything.

Jason frowned. "It's him!"

It seemed that he had to find an opportunity to give this Austin Ning a lesson!

After getting out of the alley, Jason waited for a bus to go to the company. Not long after he got on the bus, seven or eight bald men followed behind him. All of them were fleshy and half-naked.

As soon as they got on the bus, everyone on the bus left their seats and moved forward in fear.

"Brother Cody, it's him! It's him who beat Brother Gavin!"

Behind the seven or eight bald men, a familiar-looking guy shouted and pointed to Jason, who sat at the back.

Jason glanced at them and knew that those people just now went to look for help. He said coldly, "Did I not beat you enough just now?"

The bald man who was called Brother Cody was 1.8 meters tall. He was fat and looked like a fat pig. He had a sinister look on his face.

He looked at Jason from head to toe and said to his brother beside him, "Just him? Gavin, what's wrong with you? Or I, Cody can't lift the knife anymore? With such thin arms and legs, he looked like a coward. How can you guys fail miserably?"

The young man looked aggrieved and said, "Brother Cody, it's not that. He looked as gentle as a young lady, but he is scary when he beat me up!"

Brother Cody pushed him aside impatiently, pulled the handle, and sat on the chair in front of Jason. He sneered at him and said, "Kid, I heard that you beat my brother. If I don't teach you a good lesson, I can't survive in Shang Jiang anymore. But I don't think you can endure it with your thin arms and legs. Why don't you kneel now, kowtow to my brothers and me and call us grandpa. Then take another one hundred thousand out as their medical fee. How about that?"

Jason did not say anything. Now he looked at him as if he was looking at a fool. He smiled and said, "I don't think it's good. How about this, if you give me one hundred thousand, I won't beat you up. What do you think?"

"What... What did you say?"

Brother Cody was confused. He suspected that there was something wrong with his ears. This guy was too arrogant!

Several of his subordinates behind him reacted and said furiously, "Brother Cody, this guy actually looks down on

you. Kill him!"

"F*ck! Boy, you're courting death!"

Brother Cody was also furious. He was the boss of this area. He had always been the only one who bullied others. When did anyone dare to look down on him?

He grabbed the handle and kicked Jason in the waist!

Jason would either be half dead or half disabled after this kick!

Without leaving any time for Jason to think about it, Brother Cody's powerful kick had already been kicked over.

Jason sneered, but he did not move his body. He kicked directly at the joint on Brother Cody's foot with his right foot.

Crack!

Only the sound of bone cracking could be heard in the entire carriage!

Then, Brother Cody screamed. He fell on the ground in a front split. Sweat rolled down from his fat cheeks.

"Ah! My legs! My crotch!"

Brother Cody was trembling with pain. He held the knee of his left foot with one hand and covered his torn crotch with another.

Now he felt that his crotch seemed to have been torn open. It was burning pain!

The several bald men behind Brother Cody were also shocked by the scene in front of them and could not say anything. They all gasped in shock!

After being stunned for a long time, they reacted and rushed forward to help Brother Cody up. They also pointed at Jason and said angrily, "How dare you to kick Brother Cody? You're courting death!"

Jason chuckled. He was still sitting down as if he was saying 'what can you do to me'.

He took a look at Brother Cody, whose legs were wide open and his face was full of pain, and said with a smile, "Brother Cody, do you want to consider what I just said?"

What a bunch of cowards! What was Austin thinking? Did he really think that he was a good-for-nothing?

After all, he had trained hard with Zayne Xiao for a year.

It would be a shame if the children from a big family did not have self-defense skills.

Brother Cody wanted to cry now but had no tears. The pain of his crotch inside the trouser and the pain in his knee made him felt so painful that he wanted to die!

He did not expect to meet such a ruthless person in his territory!

"Consider your f*cking hell! Everyone, beat him to death!"

Brother Cody yelled, with a grim look on his face.

All of a sudden, five or six bald men who were half-naked rushed up!

Brother Cody did not believe that they could not defeat him with so many people!

Jason shook his head and got up slowly, which scared the five or six bald men who were originally angry and their momentum suddenly faded away.

None of them dared to take a step forward. They were afraid that they would become another Brother Cody.

"What are you guys waiting for? Beat him up!"

Brother Cody shouted at the back.

Five or six bald men looked at each other and shouted. Some waved their fists, while others kicked their legs. All of them rushed to Jason.

Jason raised his eyebrows and grinned. His palm slapped out like a fan!

"Papapapapat!"

He moved too fast!

Before the others understood what was going on, five or six bald men all had red palm prints on their faces. Some were lying on the carriage floor, some were lying on the seat, and some were hanging on the handle!

"Oh, so weak."

Jason shook his hand and walked step by step to Brother Cody, who had already been scared out of his wits.

He did not expect his own combat strength to be so strong!

Jason's voice was cold. "Brother Cody, how's your consideration?"

Brother Cody wiped the cold sweat on his forehead, glanced at his brothers who were lying on the ground, and said in a hurry, "Yes! Yes! As long as you can let us go, we will do anything."

Now he was willing to do anything!

When there is life, there is hope!

Brother Cody hurriedly called his subordinates. Several bald men with red palm prints on their faces could only gather a few thousand together.

Brother Cody's palms were sweating as he held the few thousand in his hand. He handed it to Jason and stammered, "Brother, we didn't bring much money. Is this enough?"

To tell the truth, he was scared. He was afraid that Jason would kick another of his leg to pieces because he was unhappy!

This scene really scared the other passengers on the bus. They thought that Jason, the young man, would be dead, but this group of gangsters was actually begging for mercy now. It was incredible!

Jason looked at the wrinkled money and said coldly, "Brother Cody, am I a beggar?"

Hearing this, Brother Cody trembled and knelt on the ground with tears and snot, "Sir, I was wrong. I have an eighty years old mother and a wife and children. Please let me go. I'll go back and gather more, okay?"

As soon as he knelt, the other bald men also knelt.

They really felt wronged. Usually, it was them who robbed others and asked for money. People would beg for their mercy, but today, the opposite happened.

The man in front of them felt more like a gangster, and they were great citizens who were at the mercy of others.

Jason thought for a moment and refused politely, "No."

He did not believe that these guys did not keep any private money.

In the end, Brother Cody and the others pieced together one hundred thousand and gave it to Jason. Only then did they escape.

Getting out of the car, Jason received a phone call from an unknown number.

"Hello, who's on the line?"

Jason asked.

"Jason, do you still remember me?"

A sneer came from the other end of the phone. It sounded familiar.

"Noble Brown?!" Jason frowned.

"Yeah, I haven't seen you for a long time. I'm back."

The male voice on the other end of the phone continued, "I'm now in the hospital, and Angela is sleeping beside me. She is so obedient. Do you want to come over?"
